School life contains many expressions. The tense moments of a football game, the “nerve-racking” minutes of a solo, and even a silly look on someone’s face, portray the emotions and lives of the students.

As students, we experience all types of “mountains and molehills.” Whichever it may be, the result remains the same . . . the unique expression.

They say "a picture can paint a thousand words" and so it is with a face. A face can describe every emotion, from anguish to happiness.

As we look back on the year, we can re-live those emotions and expressions.

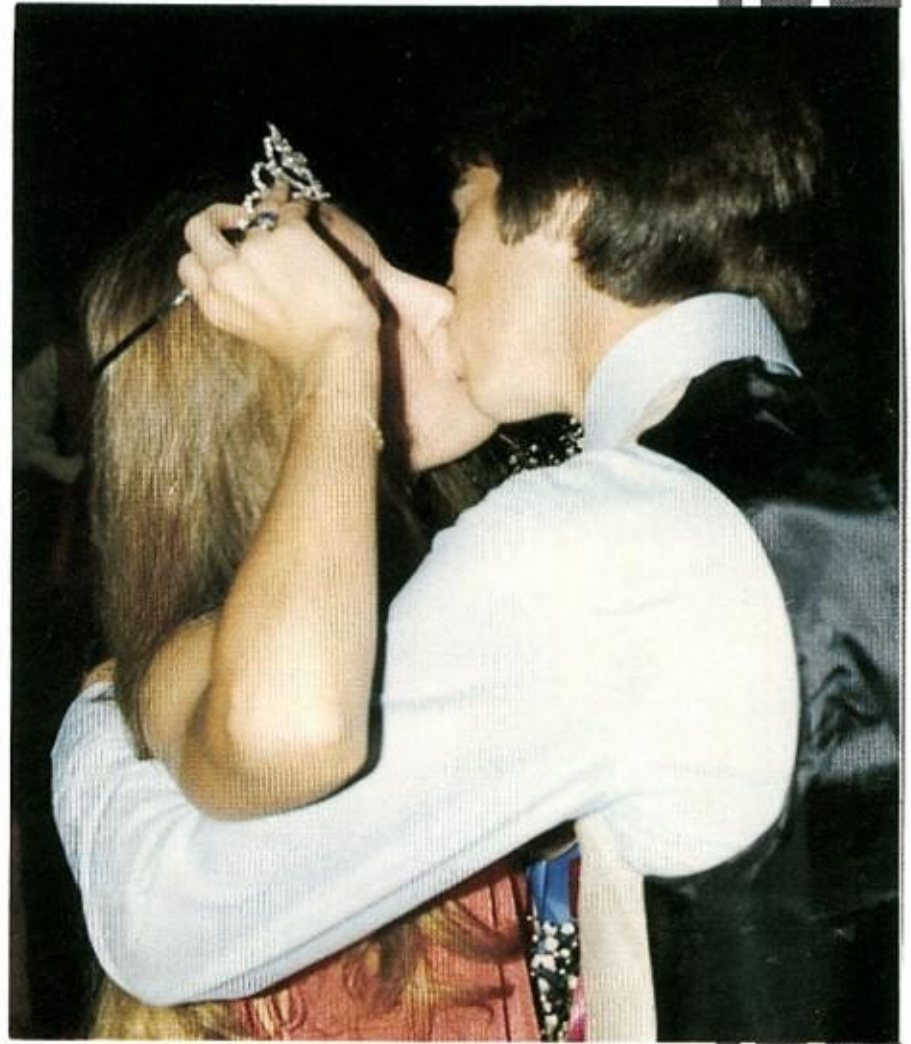

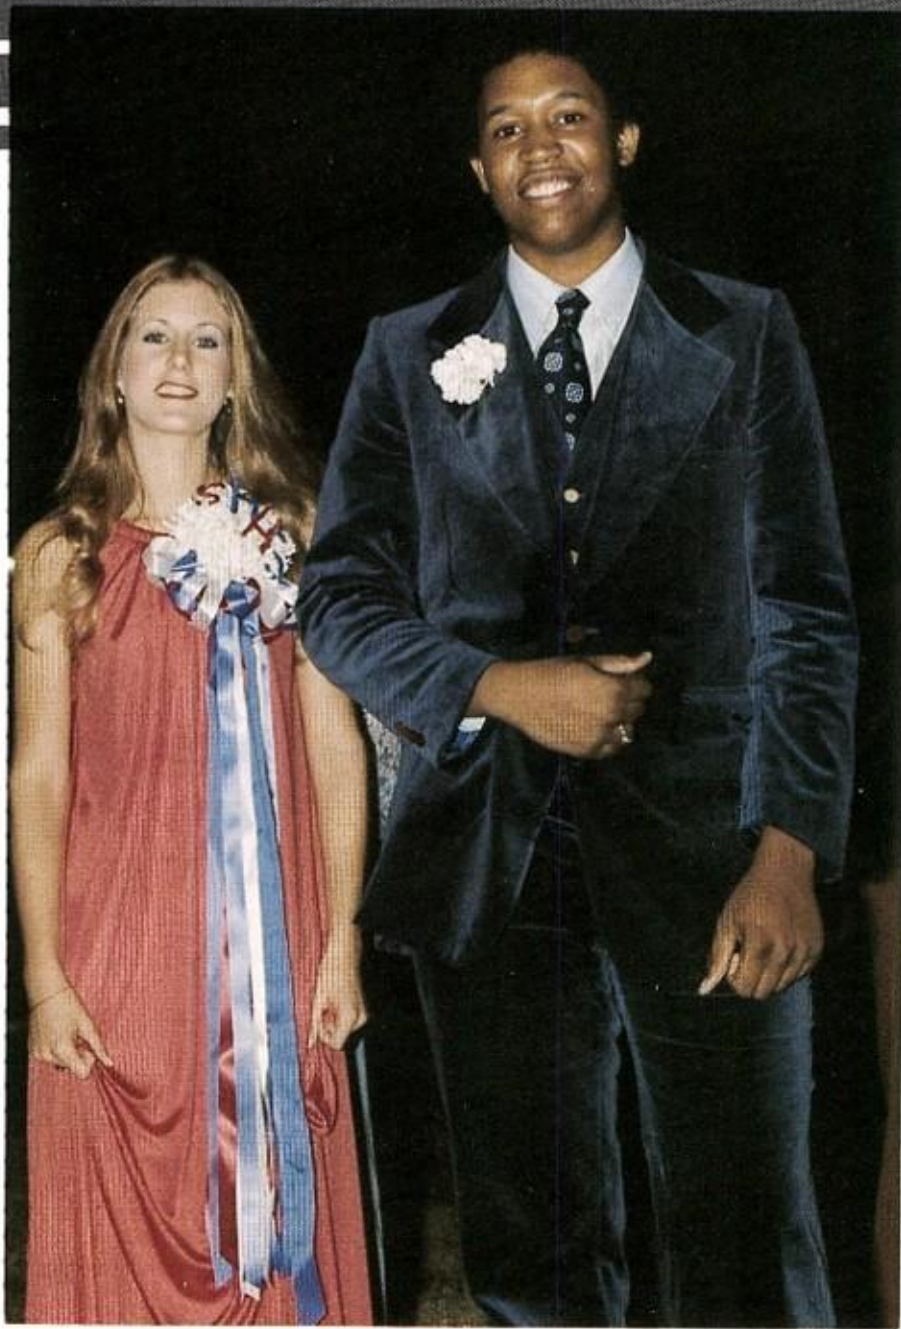

Monday mornings tortured us all. The only thing that kept us going was seeing Friday as only four days away.

The wonderful Wednesday morning activity schedules saved many from total exhaustion.

Then there were the times when a sleeping bag seemed more appropriate than a notebook because of all the extra time spent at school.

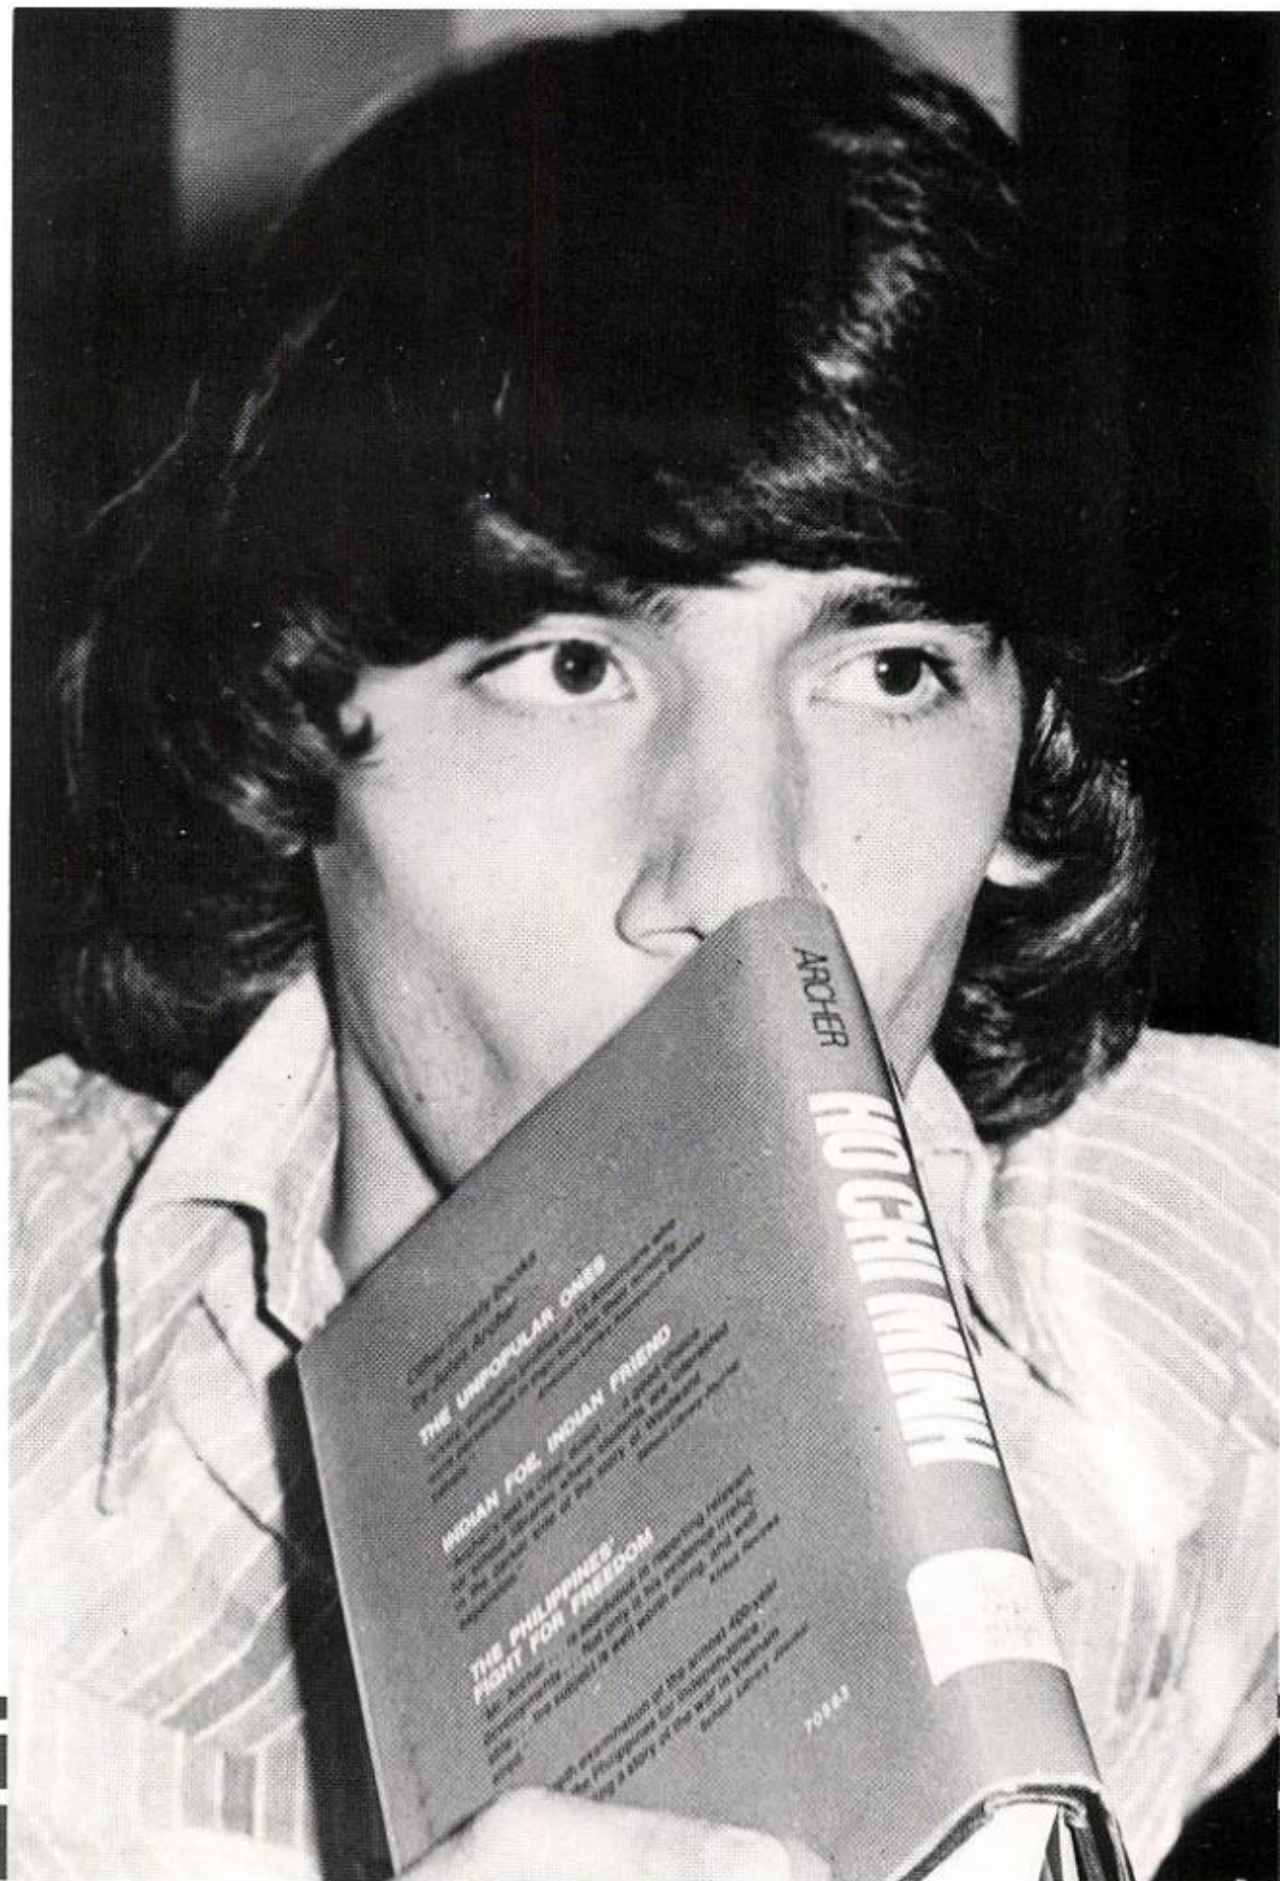

Homecoming, of course, lifted everyone's spirit. The agony of quarter exams burdened us for only a limited time. The mania of Texan Day will always be remembered, as will the sad exultation of seniors at graduation.

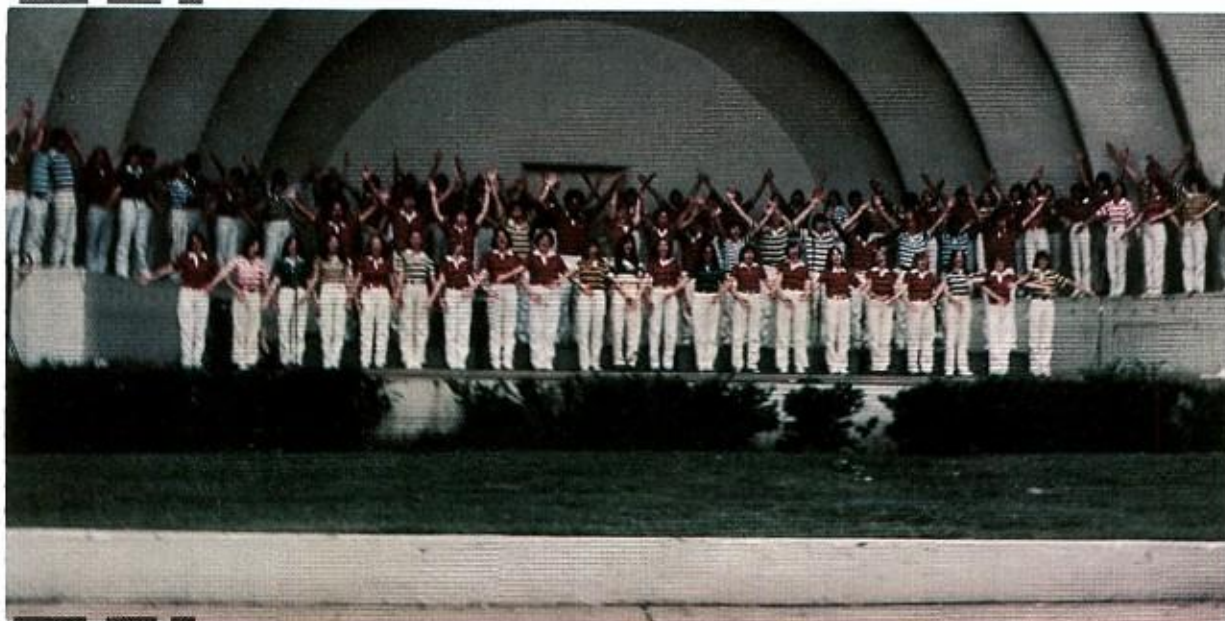

We loved the snow days and hated it when storms missed us — at least for awhile. Then we got tired of rain.

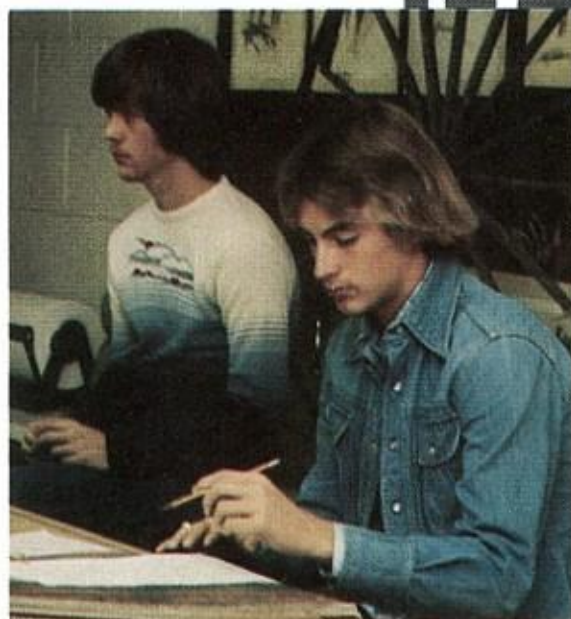

The spirit expressed does not just include pep rallies and football games. It expresses each student's goals and ideals.

This spirit "paints a picture" of our hard work and determination, and of our accomplishments and defeats.

A special spirit was expressed at a time when pride was swallowed and defeat admitted.

Classes also learned to unite at a time when separation was overpowering.

As students, we build the spirit of a school through our ideas and reactions . . . through the expression of our spirit . . .

Mr. Louis Harris receives dedication

Because of his devotion, enthusiasm, and involvement with Sam Houston, Mr. Louis Harris was chosen for the 1978 Cherokee dedication.

Coming to Sam in 1971, Mr. Harris has taught four choirs each year. He has also been responsible for many of the musicals performed on stage.

Last spring he helped organize the Miss Texan Pageant, a new activity, which emphasized talent during the two nights of competition in March.

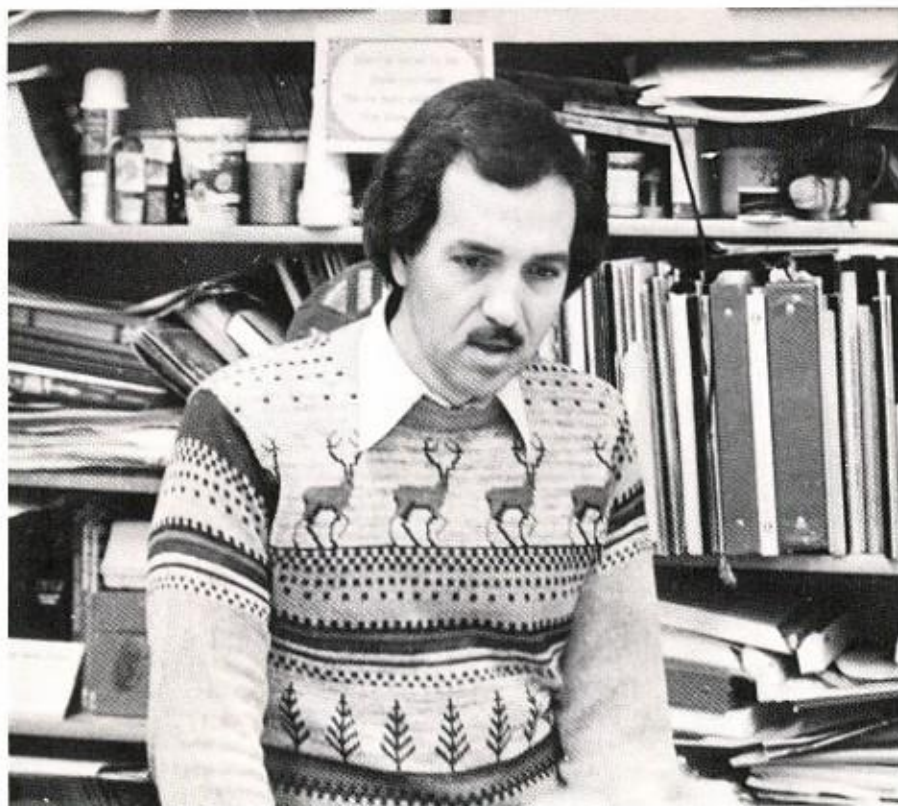

Mr. Harris is familiar to Texans, not only because of his involvement with the choirs, but also for his support of school activities.

Recently, the choral director has dedicated his summers to students, too. He organized Popcorn Palace in Lake City, Colorado. With a group of about 12 students, he performed shows for the playhouse 10 weeks during the summer.

A talented composer, as well as teacher, Mr. Harris began playing the piano at the age of four. He has published more than 40 original compositions and arrangements.

We, the Cherokee staff, award this dedication to a special Texan — Mr. Louis Harris.

A) Thinking back on a hectic day Mr. Harris wonders, "Did I forget anything?" B) Mr. Harris makes a final check on uniforms before the "Darn Yankees" begins. C) Mr. Harris often needs help to find lost items on his desk during his busy schedule of rehearsals.

Ugur enjoys lifestyle of Big Sam Texans

Being the AFS exchange student, Ugur Soku had many changes to make in his lifestyle. Coming from Duzce, Turkey, a suburb of Istanbul, he arrived in Texas on August 20 and left the last part of June.

While in Texas Ugur lived with senior Ramon Rendon and his family. He was most interested in ping-pong, basketball, swimming, and especially soccer.

As well as AFS, Ugur was a member of A Cappella Choir and played on the varsity soccer team. At the Homecoming Assembly he also escorted Kim Rich, the AFS nominee.

During February, Ugur took a two week trip to West Texas and visited other AFS students. In April he went on a short AFS trip to San Antonio to a spring festival.

A Student Congress representative, Melody was also a member of the Cherokee Staff and American Field Service. Active in the Newcomers Club, she received the Departmental Award for OEA and was September Girl of the Month.

In her junior year, Melody received a Perfect Attendance Award. She was also a Secret Sister.

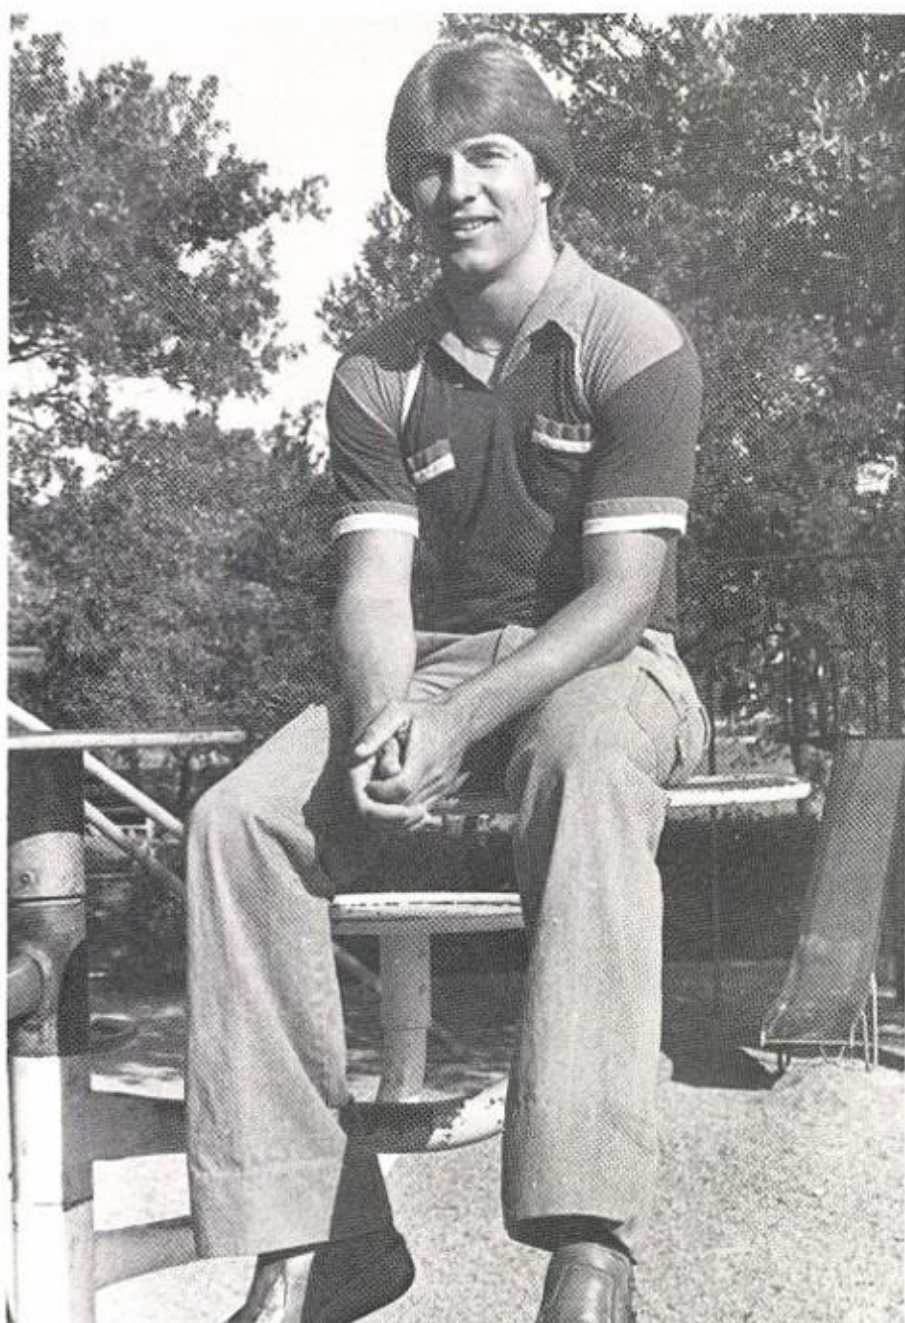

An active member of drama, David Pucek participated in Thespians and National Forensic League. He was in 13 productions and shows and was awarded 25 trophies for duet acting, drama interpretation, and humorous interpretation.

David received a Thespian scholarship and was fourth in the nation in humorous interpretation. He qualified for nationals in Chicago, Illinois.

A member of choir, David was also in Singing Texans and the Newcomers Club. He was also a Student Congress representative.

A member of the football team, Loyd Stephens was chosen as team captain, Best Lineman and was named All District. As well as being on the track team, he was a member of A Cappella Choir and Singing Texans.

Loyd was involved in Student Congress, elected Valentine King and was named Senior Class Favorite at the Cherokee Assembly.

Jill Parker was also an active senior. She was a member of the Foreign Language Club, American Field Service, and the National Honor Society. She served as secretary for the German Club and treasurer for FHA.

Jill participated in the National Forensic League, Thespians and won many awards at speech and drama tournaments. She was in the cast and crew of six drama productions as well as being a nominee for the Soroptimist Scholarship.

December Girl of the Month, Jill also received a Youth Citizenship Award, as well as being in the Academic Top 10.

Active in sports, Mark Jones was a member of the football team and track team. In football he was named to All District and served as team captain. He was a regional finalist and state champion in the pole vault.

A member of the Foreign Language Club, Mark was also in FHA and the Key Club. He served as vice-president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Ten students were recognized as Top 10 Seniors at the Cherokee Assembly on May 3. They were selected on school activities and grades and were in competition for Mr. and Miss Sam Houston.

Editor of Texans Talk, Billye Choate served on the staff for two years and was J-1 editor as a sophomore. She has been a member of Student Congress, National Honor Society, American Field Service, Future Business Leaders of America, and was a Homecoming nominee.

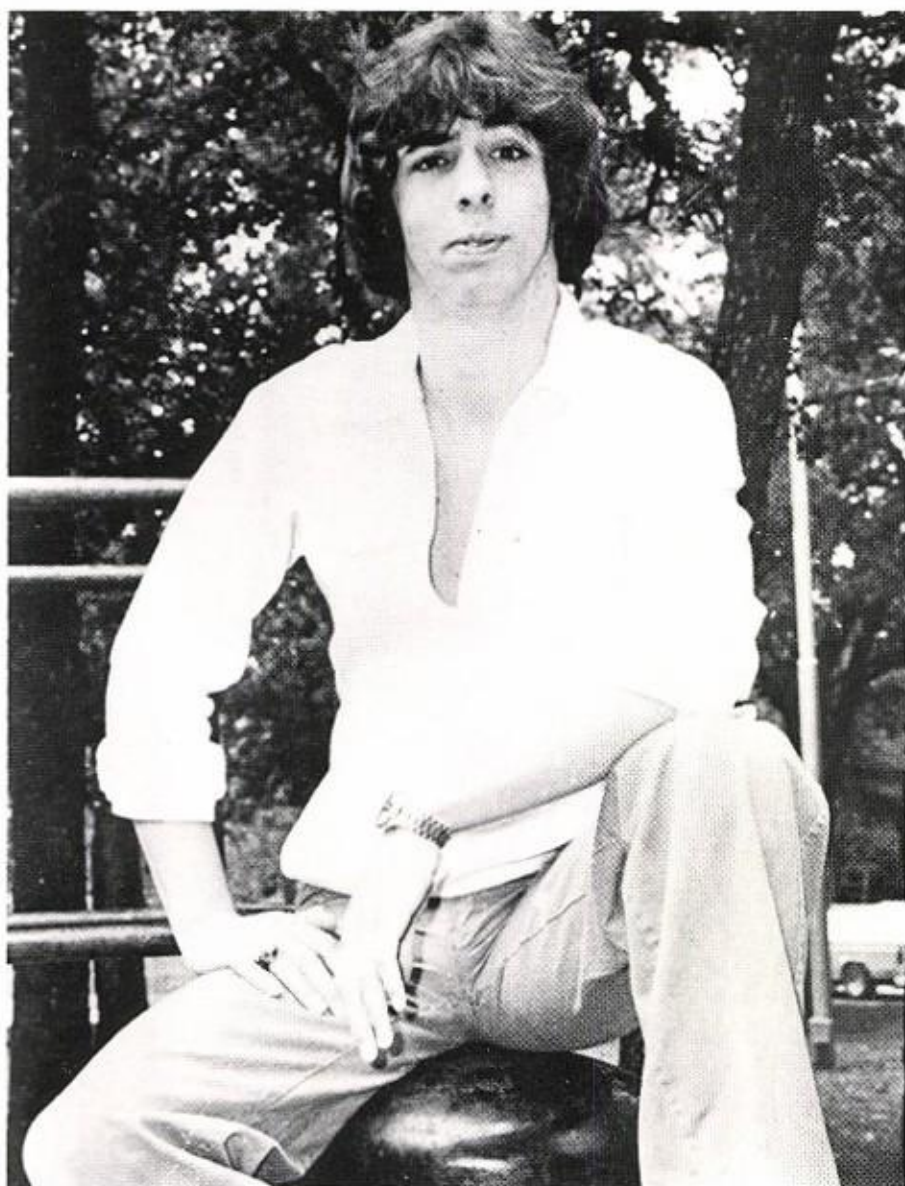

Elks Student of the Month and Soroptimist representative, Billye was an honor Quill and Scroll member and a sophomore member of choir.

Diana Gardner was president and secretary of American Field Service and served as an Americans Abroad student to Turkey last summer. Involved in A Cappella Choir and Texan Belles, she was librarian and secretary of the girls' group.

Social chairman of the National Honor Society, Diana was Chamber of Commerce Girl of the Month and a member of Spanish Club and in the cast of two musicals.

An honor member of the National Forensic League and Thespians, Warren Spencer was also Thespian clerk. He was a member of the French Club and Spanish Club, as well as the honor society.

A NMSQT Commended Student and a Top 10 academic graduate, Warren was also involved with eight theater productions.

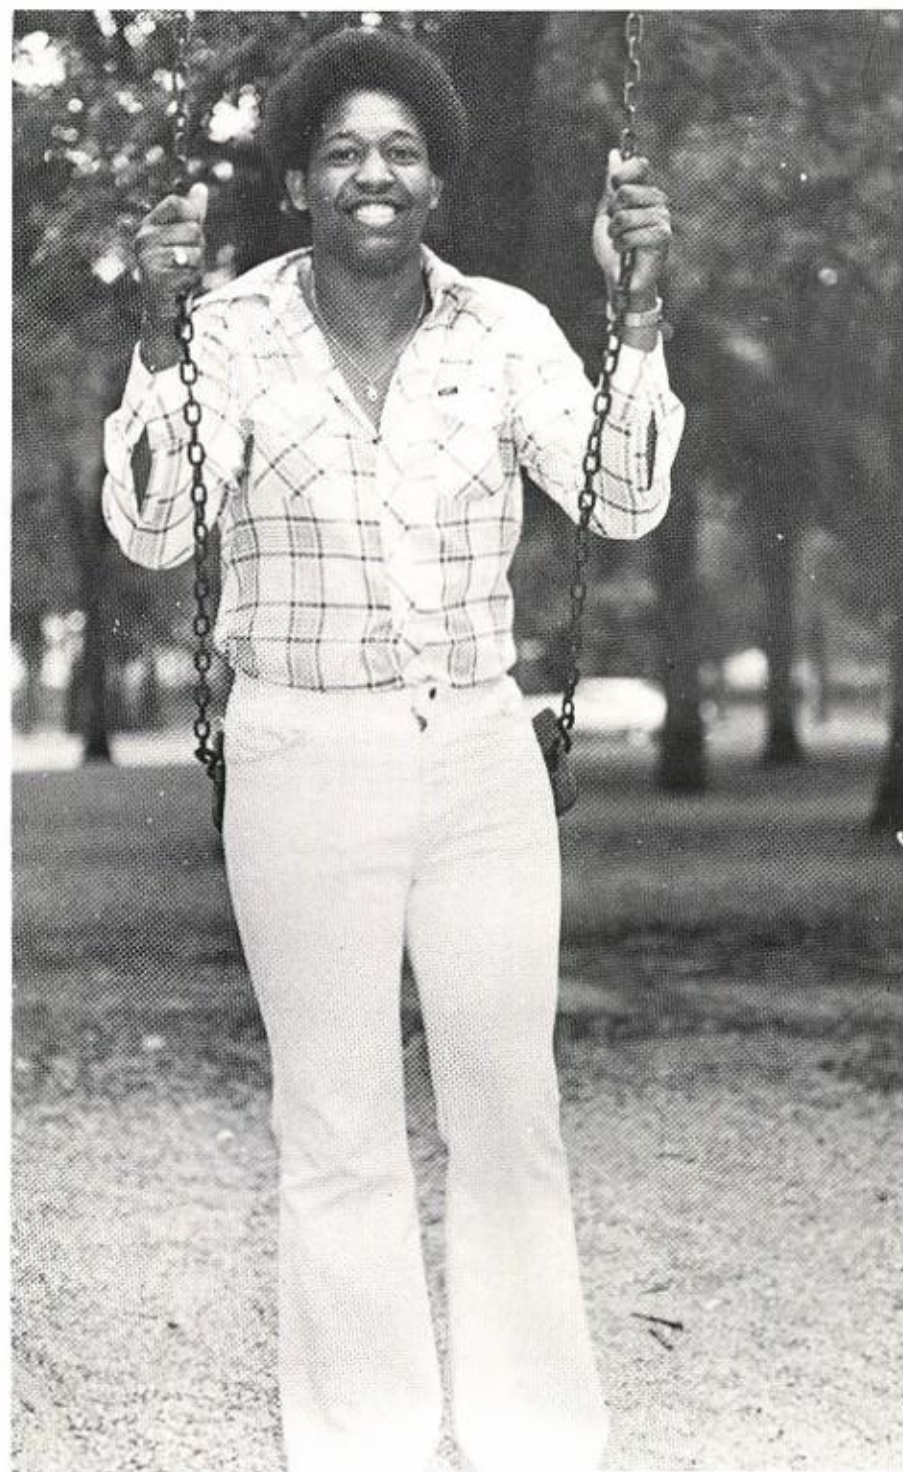

A member of the Foreign Language Club and American Field Service, Eileen Hollingsworth was also a member of the National Honor Society and an honor member of Quill and Scroll.

Eileen was a member of Texan Belles and A Cappella Choir and participated in Student Congress and Future Homemakers of America.

Serving as editor of the Cherokee and Chamber of Commerce Girl of the Month, she received the DAR and Optimist Awards at the Cherokee Assembly. Eileen was a member of PTSA and a Homecoming nominee.

Vice-president of Student Congress, Emzy Willich was a reporter for the Newcomers Club and named Mr. Hospitality at the Cherokee Assembly. As a member of choir, he was also involved in three musicals and two plays.

Participating in the Spanish Club and Future Teachers of America, Emzy was chosen as a youth government city councilman.

Sell-out crowd sees crowning of Debbie

On October 28, Sam Houston celebrated its twelfth annual Homecoming. The weather was excellent for the game as were the Texans. The final score was Texans 67, Elks 0.

An exciting moment came during the halftime activities. Debbie Foster was crowned Homecoming Queen and received a kiss from Student Congress president Butch Hutchison.

Debbie represented Student Congress and was escorted by Butch at the semifinalist presentation. Student Congress vice president Emzy Willrich was her escort at the game.

School clubs chose 25 nominees for queen. The Student Body voted for eight finalists on October 11. Debbie was elected in a final election held on October 26.

Michelle, Bubba win school spirit titles

On November 10, Michelle Holley and Bubba Schafer were named as the most spirited in their class. Michelle was awarded a charm and Bubba was given a key chain.

Michelle was a cheerleader for three years. She was involved in Student Congress and served as the chairperson for the French Club. Michelle was also chosen as a Homecoming queen finalist.

Bubba served as a bellguard. He was also active in sports. He played on both the soccer and baseball teams.

Seniors nominated four boys and four girls on November 3 in a class election. On November 9, the entire Student Body voted for one boy and one girl from the finalists.

(A) As a bellguard, Bubba Schafer raised Sam's school spirit.

Mickey and Minnie Mouse wandered through the halls, officially starting the annual Howdy Day activities on September 15. Ears and class tags were passed out during second period.

Familiar voices of the sophomores were heard throughout the day, while the juniors also found some difficulty in getting from class to class. Thanks to some of the teachers, even a few seniors were heard singing the fight song.

Senior sheriffs took the names of students who refused to participate in the day's events.

Friday during the pep-rally these students were asked to come down from the stands to sing. Then, Student Congress did a skit featuring Rocky the sophomore, which represented the acceptance of the "mice" as Texans.

Texan fans raise roof with tremendous spirit

Student Body support is vital to any high school team that wants to be a success. Pep rallies were one way Sam students showed they were behind their teams and their school.

Cheers were only one thing that made up the pep rallies. Cheerleaders and bellguards provided skits which illustrated the Texans' superiority over their next opponent. They also sang praises of the Texans to well known tunes.

Both the band and the drill team performed at each pep rally. These groups always helped to fire-up the already high Texan spirit.

Class competition was an important part of the rallies. Each class received at least one spirit stick, although the seniors dominated the competition with eight.

Even though the classes divided for competition they became one at the end of the rallies. As they sang the alma mater, students signified one union from the number one school.

(A) Juniors join hands to represent Texans as one. (B) We are proud of our boys Terry Harper, Chris Coats, and Jerry Dunn, escorted by Cheerleaders, who represent captains of the week and the Big Sam Football Team. (C) Warming up for the big FLC spirit contest, the German Club has got what it takes to win a spirit stick. (D) Our fine Tex-Anne Captains show a pretty smile and talented performance.

Extra work and preparation preceded Homecoming held on October 28. Winners of the special activities were announced at the pep rally held that afternoon.

Mrs. Billie Cade's second period won the door decorations. Second and third places were given to Mrs. Tommie Williams and Miss Lina Davis.

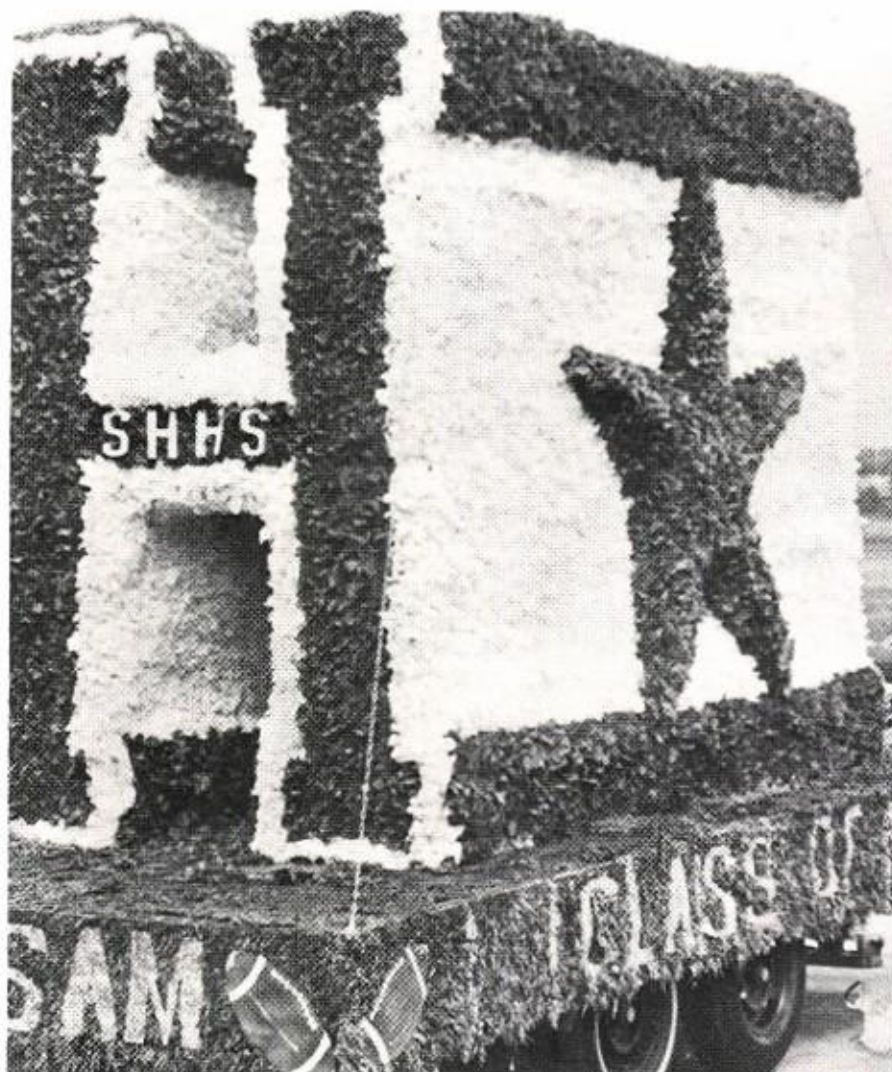

In the room decorating contest, Mrs. Judy Bas-key and Coach Don Louis's homerooms tied for first. Mrs. Carolyn McLeod's class received third place

A lot of hard work went into the class competition. Seniors took the spirit links and hall decorations, while juniors won the float competition and the spirit stick. Hall decorations were left up for the remainder of the football season.

Many exes returned to Sam for the pep rally. A reception was held for the returning Texans in the cafeteria.

(A) The Senior Class exhibits their second place float. (B) Coach Don Louis' homeroom goes all out to hunt down an Elk. (C) A good example of soph spirit is shown through their creative third place float. (D) The queen's crown and bouquet are brought on the field by Todd Remyne and LouAnn Harris, two future Big Sam Texans.

Homecoming brings back 'ex' memories

Drama fall productions 'Thoreau', 'Peter Pan' attract Sam audiences

"The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail" — Waldo-Tony Perrett (Make-Up); Lydian-Joni Brake (Stage Manager); Mother-Sandy Webb; Henry-David Pucek; John-David Homb; Bailey-Kerry Owens; Ball-Debi Wells; Ellen-Lynn Mercer (Publicity); Sam-Warren Spencer (Set Constructor); Elizabeth-Cathy Sauls; Williams-Emzy Willrich; Farmer-James Healy; Woman-Linda Phillips; Death Chorus-Phrely Asbury, Andy Douglas, Mindy Money, Paul Shadwick, Kim Pucek (Student Director).

By the time school was into full swing, the Drama Department was hard at work on two fall productions, "The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail" and "Peter Pan."

"The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail," written by Lawrence and Hart, was the story of Henry David Thoreau. A young scholar, Thoreau tried to do what he believed in and not what society expected of him.

Premiering October 8 at 2 p.m., the cast performed to a crowd of about 200. Two other performances were scheduled, one that evening at 8 p.m. and one on October 15 at 8 p.m.

Auditions were open to the entire Student Body with rehearsals beginning the second week of school. The cast and crew of 35 rehearsed after school and on weekends.

At the conclusion of the three performances, the Drama Department cleared $250.

"Peter Pan," by J. M. Barrie, was a favorite among children at 12 elementaries. Members of the cast toured the schools and performed portions of the play. Performances for the public were scheduled for November 12 and 19 at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the Sam Houston Theatre.

A cast and crew of 40 was chosen with rehearsals beginning October 17. Auditions were open to the entire school.

At the conclusion of the children's play the Drama Department had a profit of $200 with a crowd of about 300 people at each performance.

A) Meg disgustingly looks on as her husband, Joe, watches the baseball game on T.V. B) Lola seducingly attracts the attention of the baseball players. C) The Rangers take time out in the locker room for pictures.

With a cast and crew of about 80, "Darn Yankees" played to more than 1500 people during the three nights of performances. The Choir Department, who sponsored the show, made a profit of about $750. Mr. Louis Harris directed the musical.

"Darn Yankees" premiered February 2 at 7:30 p.m. with two other performances on February 3-4. After Saturday's show there was a cast and crew party at La Buena Vida.

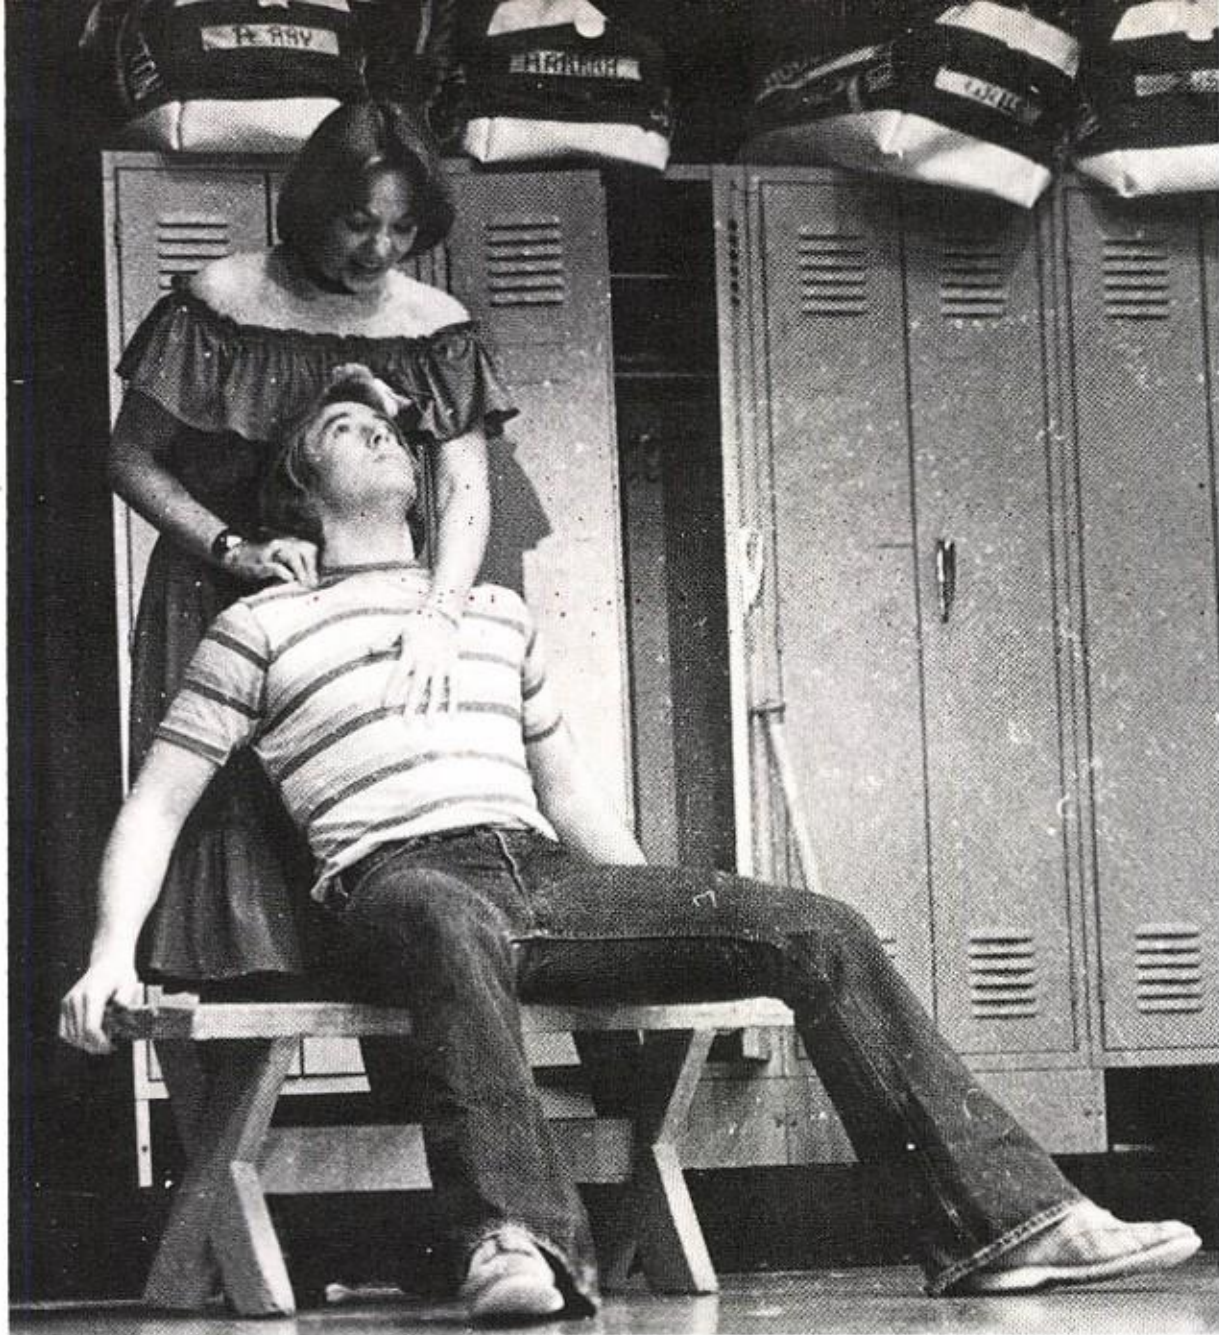

Members of the school orchestra and band provided musical accompaniment for "Darn Yankees." Portions of the play were performed at two assemblies during third period on February 1.

On the first night of performance the Choir Department gave away Texas Ranger buttons and on the second and third nights, bumper stickers and team pictures were given away.

Auditions for the musical were held before Thanksgiving with rehearsals beginning after the holidays.

Extracurricular hours spent at work and play

While many hours of students' time are spent working at school, extracurricular hours are spent at variety of places. Many of Sam's students spend a lot of time behind the scene working on projects.

Journalism students are often found in the wee hours of the night rushing to meet annual and newspaper deadlines. Student Council and class officers rack their brains trying to come up with new ideas for the school year. Band students faithfully dedicate themselves to boost Big Sam's spirit. During the early hours of the morning Tex-Annes are hard at work making up new routines for the football games. Sponsors spend their time trying to help make students more involved in activities.

Many more Texans spend hours of work for the better production of a school year. While some are hard at work, others are supporting Sam activities by demonstrating their class spirit. Each class takes time out to construct projects for Homecoming.

Working hard and playing are what unite Big Sam students into being the number one school in Arlington.

Miss Texan Jima Richie

A number of Sam Houston girls competed for the title of Miss Texan. Out of the 18 girls who auditioned on January 12, 10 were selected to go on to the finals.

On March 16-17 at 8 p.m. finals for the Miss Texan Pageant were performed in the school auditorium.

After the evening gown and talent competition, Jima Richie was selected as Miss Texan. For her talent, Jima performed a gymnastic routine.

Sandy Gardner was named Miss Congeniality. She did a song and dance routine to "Thank God I'm a Country Girl."

D

On April 7, the traditional Texan Day was held with students and faculty portraying the "Old West." Sheriffs were appointed from the Senior Class to uphold law and order throughout the day's activities.

Students could have their teachers or other "enemies" arrested by the sheriffs and thrown in the jail sponsored by the Senior Class.

The school courtyard was the scene of the carnival that night. Junior Class members set up a kissin' booth and a car bash, while sophomores had a body painting booth and a juke box.

Other attractions included a marriage booth and a nacho stand sponsored by the Spanish Club. French Club members sold popcorn, cotton candy and snow cones and held a cake walk and jelly bean guess.

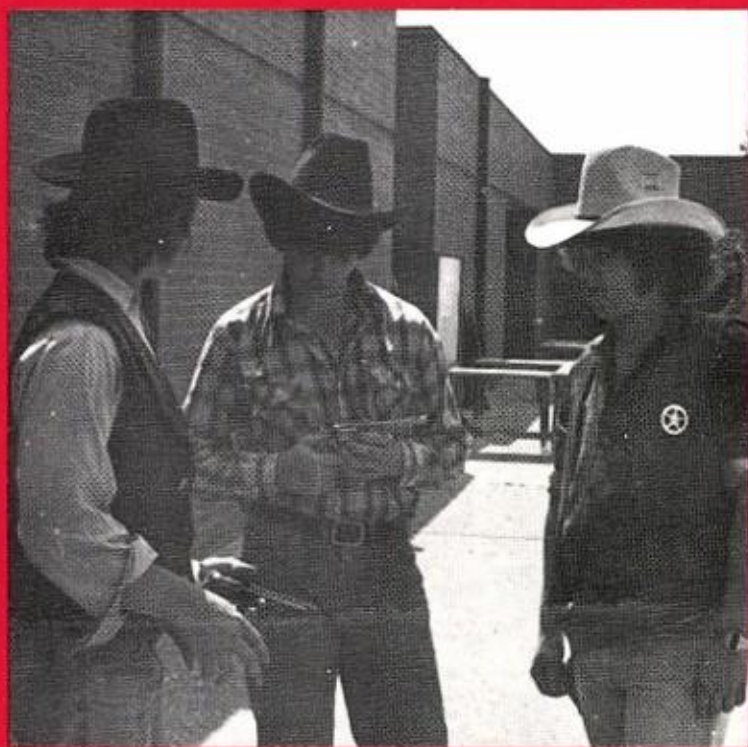

Journalism's Sam Hill Saloon featured milkshakes. AFS had a bucking bronco machine, while the choir sponsored the Gong Show.

Against a western backdrop, Tex-Annes performed a skit, and Keywanettes sponsored a coin toss.

DECA members also had a coin toss in addition to a snake show and dart throw. Student Congress featured a country store and a hay ride.

On May 3, seniors were treated to breakfast by the Junior Class, then joined underclassmen at the annual Cherokee Assembly sponsored by the Journalism Department.

The Junior Class prepared the plans and decorations for the Senior Breakfast. Juniors chose "Star Wars" as their theme.

At the Cherokee Assembly, awards were presented for academics, citizenship, and personal achievements. The assembly's theme was the 10 year reunion of the Class of '78.

Students, parents, and faculty members attended the assembly. There was standing room only in the auditorium.

Sam Houston took second place in District 8-4A football competition behind crosstown foes Lamar and Arlington who were co-champions. The Texans took seven of their battles, while losing only two.

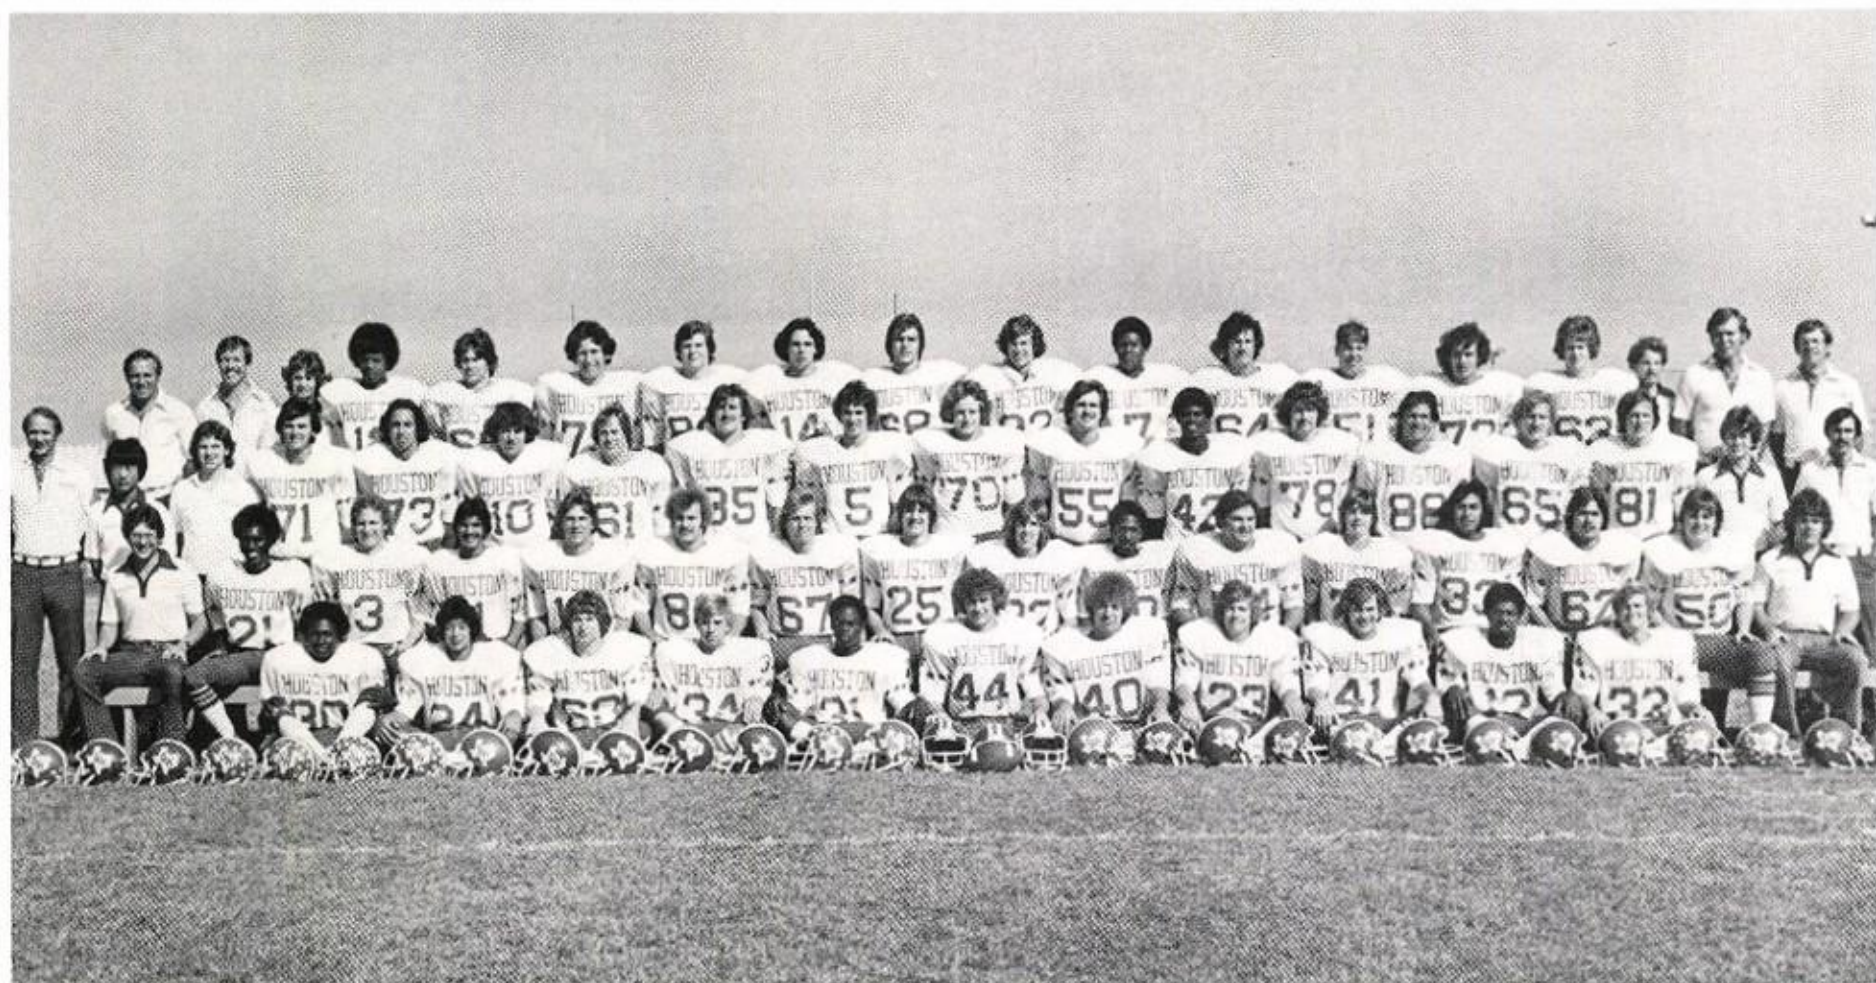

Pre-season was a time of building for the Texans, who won close games against Kimball, Southwest, and Wichita Falls Rider. Sam was picked in pre-season as favorites to remain the district champions.

With each game the Texans got steadily stronger as they trounced opponents and by the middle of the district season Sam had taken fourth in the AP poll. Sam won games against Bowie, Haltom, Richland, Burleson, and Cleburne. In these five games, the Houston offense scored over 10 times as many points as the defense allowed.

The Texans were then knocked out of the playoffs by Lamar in the next to the last game and lost to Arlington in the end to lose even a co-championship.

Nine Texans were named to the all-district team from the outstanding Houston squad. Among these were tailback Kenneth Jackson who gained 801 yards on 121 carries, and Jerry Dunn who ate up 729 yards on 154 carries.

QB Mark Jones ended the season, completing 67 of 154 passes for 803 yards and four touchdowns. His receivers, Tim Redman, Terry Harper, and Gerald Hill, totaled 58 receptions for 911 yards.

Redman and Harper were named to the all-district team. Randy Hudson was the only offensive lineman to take all-district honors.

The Texans rushed for 2,235 yards and passed for 911 yards totaling 3,146 yards. Punter/kicker Mike Marlow booted 10 of 16 field goals, his longest being 44 yards. He also kicked 24 of 29 PATs, had a 38 yard punting average, and was also named to the all-district team.

David Rudd led the defense with 124 tackles, while Steve Dearman and Daryl Worden were close behind. Rudd and Worden were also joined by Loyd Stephens and Victor Parra on the all-district team. Houston averaged 25.7 points per game with opponents averaging only 11.9 points.

Sam Houston's football season started with a pre-season win over the Kimball Knights of Dallas, 16-6. The second win came in a come-from-behind win over the Southwest Rebels. Sam was down by 13 going into halftime, but took the Fort Worth team with 14 points in the second half.

The final pre-season game took place at Wichita Falls as the Texans took care of the Rider Raiders, 12-7.

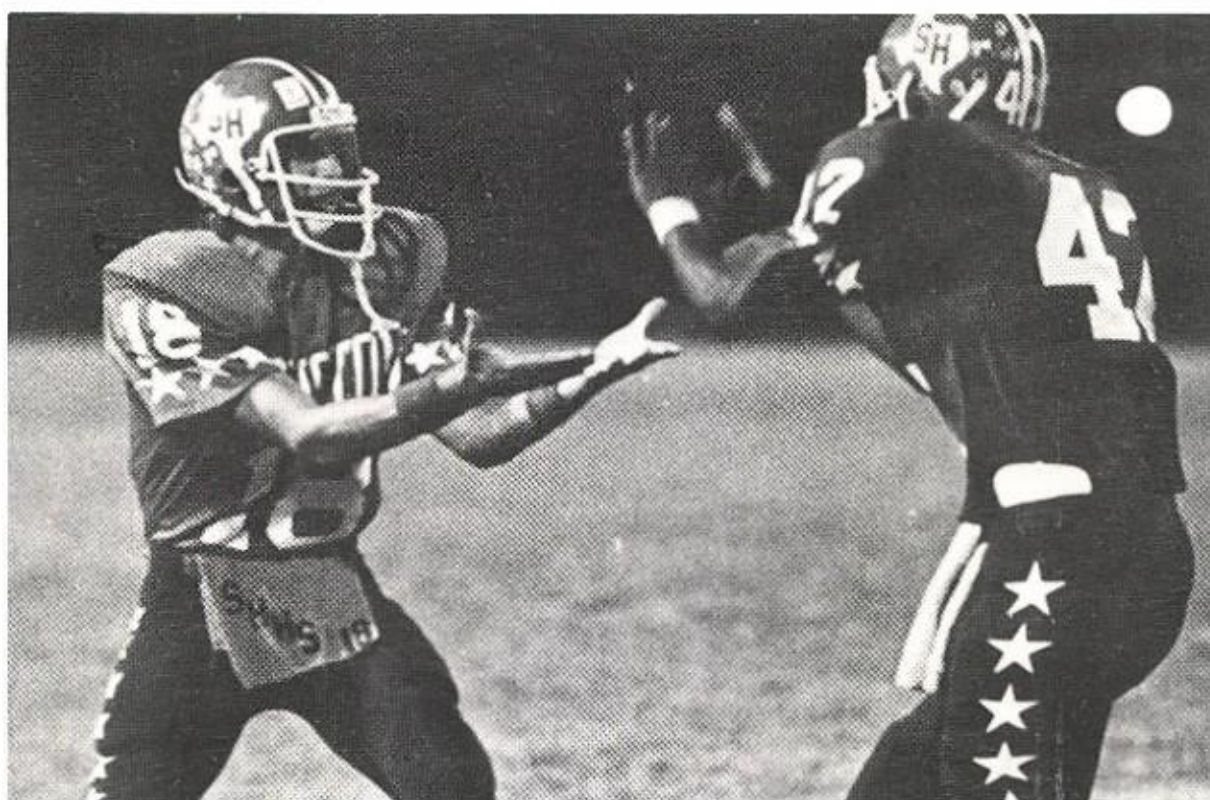

The district opener with Haltom seemed much less of a contest than expected. Sam took care of the single wing offense with a 31-8 win.

Cleburne had been a surprise team in the district, losing to Lamar by a small margin and posed somewhat of a threat to the high flying Houston squad. However, the Texans enjoyed the bus ride back with a 13-0 win over the Yellowjackets.

Sam's next game was with a steadily improving Bowie Volunteer team who could be a spoiler in the district. But, this small detail did not bother the Texans as they proved decisive winners with a score of 26-0.

F

H

Houston had little difficulty in holding off the Richland Rebels at Cravens Field, as they handled them 31-8. It seemed as though there wasn't another team on the field during the whole game against Burleson. The contest proved to be quite a treat for the Houston Homecoming crowd as the Texans demolished the Elks 67-0.

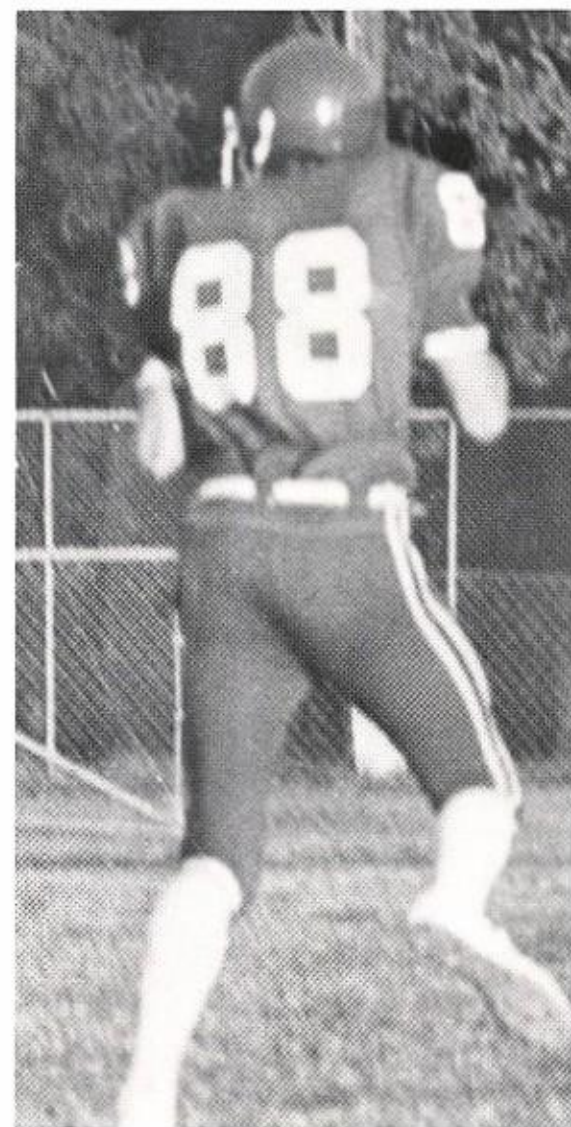

Sam Houston's season had come down to the Lamar game several times before, and this season was no exception. The Texans were stunned at the Viking enthusiasm and lost 43-12. The season ended with a loss to Arlington High, 29-27 in the final minutes.

B-team football held on to a winning season with six victories over four losses. During pre-season Sam chalked up three wins. One was over Kimball 21-0 in which the defense turned in an excellent performance. The other was against Southwest, 35-6. A forfeit by Western Hills gave the Texans their third pre-season win.

Sam Houston lost the district opener to Haltom by a margin of 32-26. Hoping to bounce back from the opening loss to Haltom, the Texans traveled to Bowie, only to wind up on the wrong end again, 19-7. The B-teamers didn't get their first win until Cleburne, 26-8. Sam suffered another loss against Richland on October 20. The Texans then came back to beat Burleson, 14-6. The JV didn't click the night they played Lamar and lost 35-6. Sam wound up with a win against AHS, 37-28.

The season for the varsity volleyball team was rough but exciting. A disappointing first half resulted in three lost matches. The Texans could not give their best as they lost to Lamar, 10-13 and 12-15. In the next match Bowie had the home court advantage, taking the match in two games, 1-15 and 14-16. Although the Texans had not played well, they came back and beat Burleson, 15-6 and 15-7.

Sam's next match was against crosstown rival AHS. The Texans took the Colts in the first game 15-12, but they fell to a 9-15 and 4-15 loss to Arlington.

Second half play was much better for the Texans. They came back and beat Lamar, 15-10 and 15-4. Then Sam won against Bowie, 15-12 and 15-8. The Texans then faced Arlington for the second half championship but lost 13-15 and 7-15.

Junior Varsity spikers split district record at 7-7

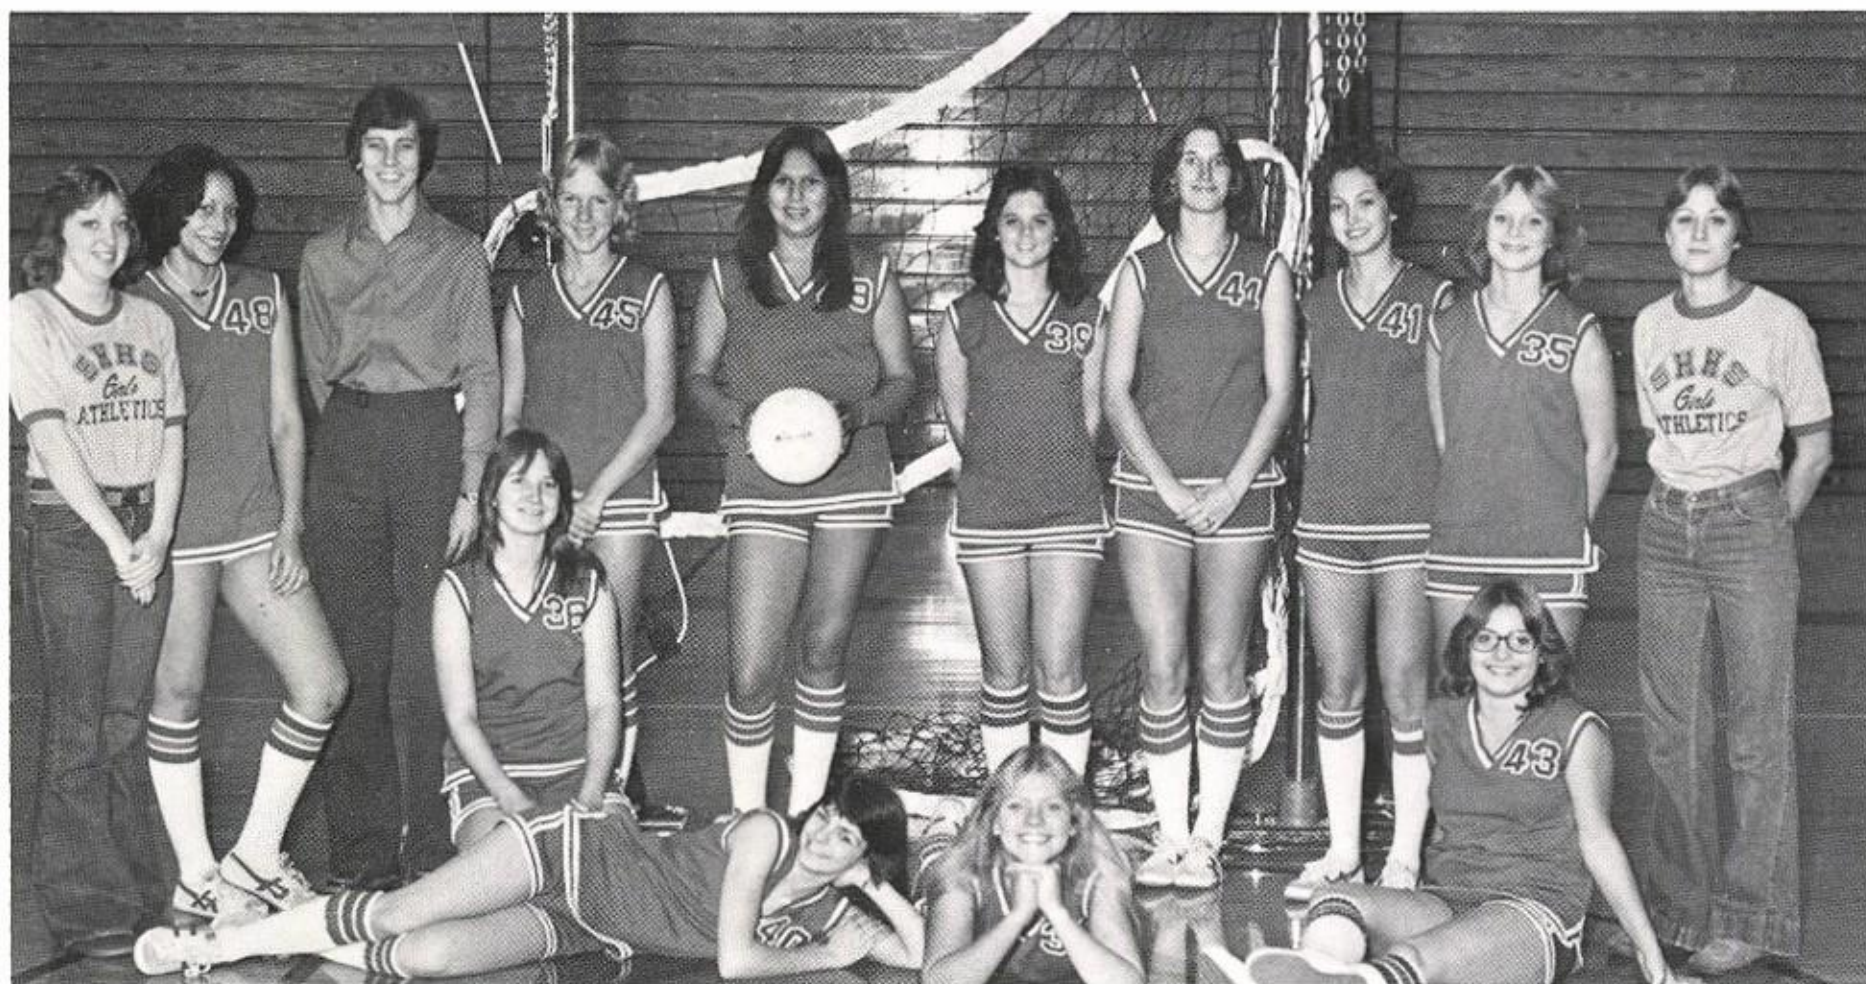

Sam Houston JV volleyball team had a rough season. The Texans played hard and learned a lot of new skills. Their first half play was good. Sam lost two of their games but won five. The Texans beat Haltom, Lamar, and Bowie in three good matches, all going into three games. Sam also beat fairly comfortably Cleburne and Burleson. The Texans were five wins and one loss when they faced AHS. Sam played together beating them in one game, but fell to 14-6 and 9-15 losses.

In the second round of district play the JV had a disappointing half. The Texans won two and lost five. Sam just could not play very well. It seemed the team had a hard time working together. Though the Texans were not doing very well they beat Cleburne 15-7, 15-4 and Burleson 15-4, 16-14. The JV played AHS their last game. The Texans played well but the Colts pulled away and beat Sam 8-15 and 7-15.

Sam pulls five wins in first half district

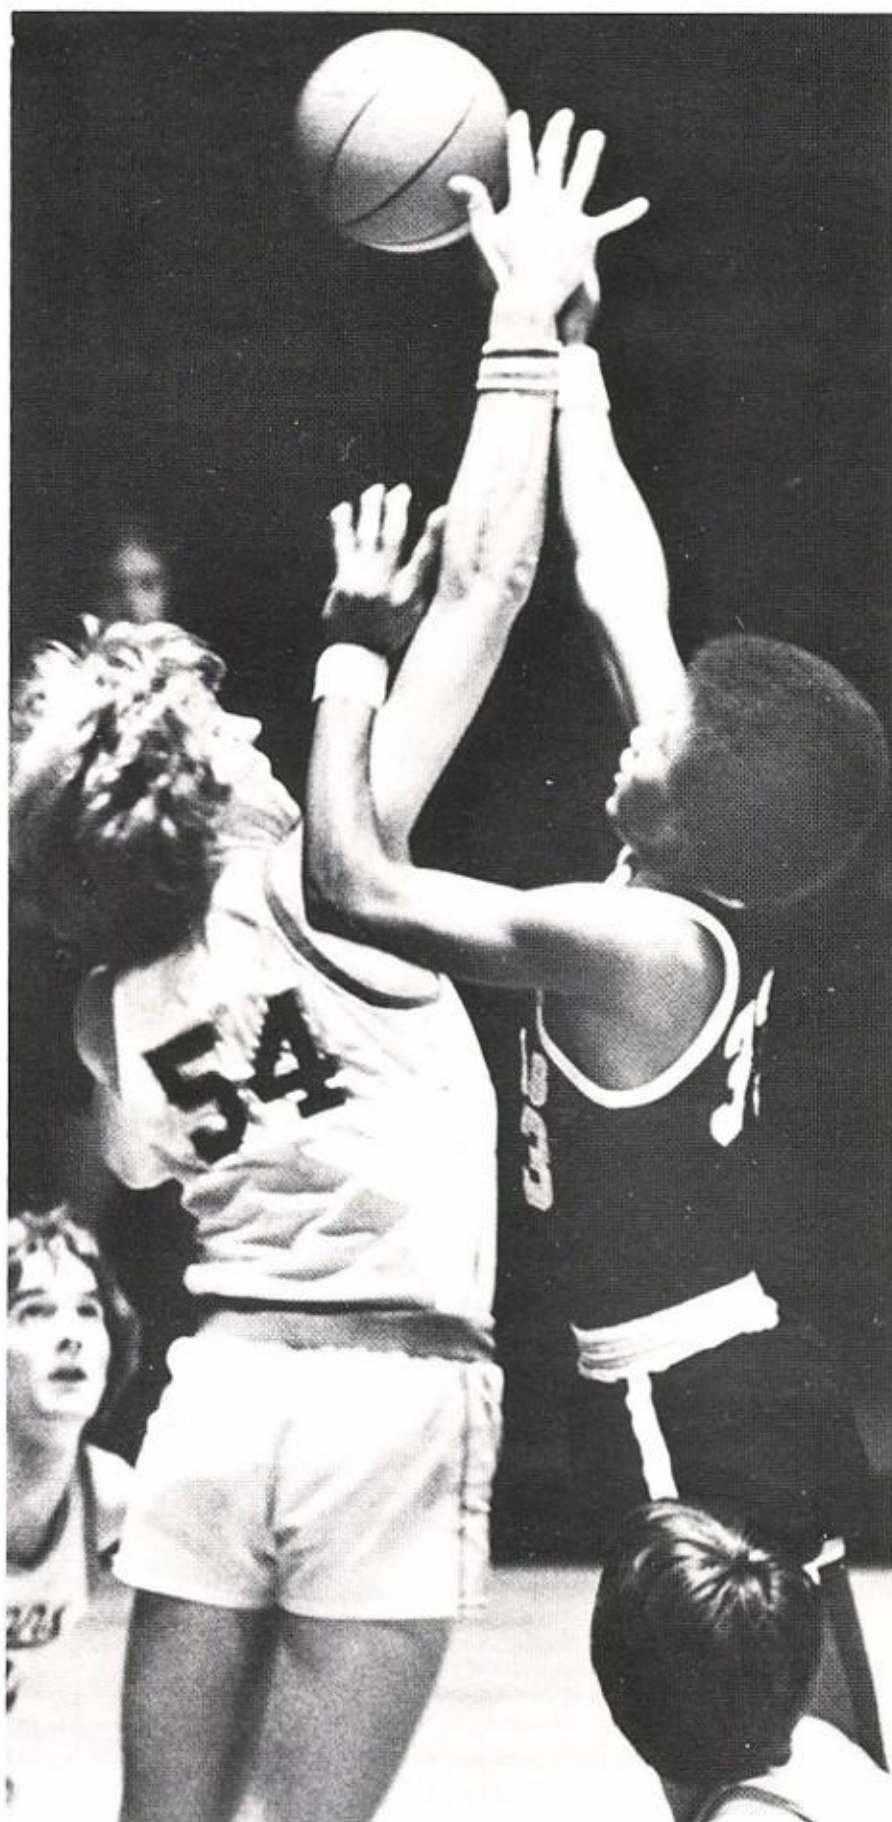

A young Texan team of only six seniors and nine juniors held on to a solid 9-5 district record. The Texans also took part in three non-district tournaments, the Arlington Classic, and the Duncanville and the Bowie-Houston Tournaments. The Houston squad took the consolation championship in the Bowie-Houston Tournament.

In the first half of district play, the Texans first met Cleburne. Malcolm Pippins put in 22 points to help push the Houston cagers past the Yellowjackets, 71-60. Sam lost its first game on the Texan court to Haltom in a 53-47 setback.

Houston didn't stay in the loss column long, for three days later the Texans took Burleson in a 66-63 effort. Texan spirits were boosted even more, as the team took the pre-season favorites, Richland, 59-55. Sam's defense held Richland's leading scorer to only eight points.

A low scoring Lamar game was attributed to the very conservative Viking game plan. Sam took the game in overtime on a last second Brandenburgh jump shot, 28-26. Sam lost the second game, as the undefeated Colts of Arlington dropped the Texan cagers, 66-45. The Texans ended on a good note, defeating Bowie, 63-60.

Second half of district play opened with a Texan win on Sam's own court against the Cleburne Yellowjackets. Bill Adkins sank four free throws in the final minute to preserve the 57-53 win.

For the second time, Sam cagers fell to the Buffaloes of Haltom. The Buffs dropped the Texans, 45-40.

Allen Busby and Brad Brewer led the Texan raid with 10 points apiece to take Burleson, 63-53. A well balanced bench attack kept the Houston squad ahead.

Second half champions Richland walked by the Texans 61-37. The loss set the Texan second half record at 2-2.

Against crosstown rival Lamar, the Texans won by 14 points 60-45. Despite a last minute effort, the Texans once again lost to the Arlington Colts by only one point, 38-37.

The Texan varsity closed its season with a win over Bowie. Sam took the game with a 52-45 score.

The Houston team finished third behind Arlington and Richland.

B-team cagers turned in a very good season claiming a 13-1 district record, which happens to be the best Junior Varsity record in the books.

During pre-season play the Texans took part in the Little Classic held December 8-10. After a tough loss to Paschal, Sam took the next two games to take consolation in the tournament.

Sam took most of the games of the first half with little difficulty as they soon became the team to beat. In the second half of district play the Texans drew their only district loss from Lamar, in a 55-61 decision.

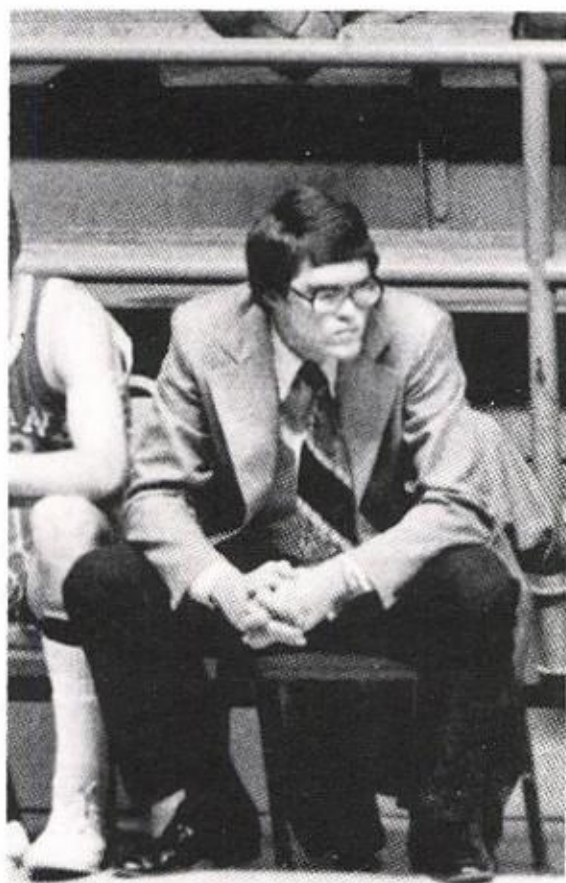

Leading scorers for the Texans included Robert Nelson, Geray Williams, and Ricky Hall. The Texans closed the season scoring a total of over 200 points more than opponents.

With a 6-7 record, the varsity girls' basketball team had a disappointing season. First half play ended in one win and five losses. But the Texans came back in the second half, winning five and losing only two.

After taking third in the Mansfield tournament, the Texans went to UTA to play in the Arlington Classic. In the first game the Texans fell to Midway but then took Roosevelt in the second game. The Texans played Arlington High for consolation, but lost 40-42.

The last tournament played in was in Plano. The Texans faced Bowie in the consolation game and took the trophy.

Sam JV played in two tournaments during the season. The Texans went to Plano for a tournament and came home with consolation.

At the Nimitz tournament, the JV took first place. This first place trophy was the first one that the girls' JV basketball team had won in the history of Sam. With their record, JV players came out with first place in district.

Sam Houston's track team produced a state pole vault champion and high honors in almost every meet thinclads attended. Sam participated in eight meets, including the Texan Relays which they hosted. The Texans placed third in five of the eight meets, and third in district behind Richland and Burleson. Houston participated in four Arlington area meets, one in Waxahachie and Richland, and the Keller Relays.

Hurdlers were led by senior Mark Wolf who placed second in the 330 yard hurdles at the Arlington and Waxahachie Relays. Wolf also took second in the 120 yard high hurdles at the Colt Relays. In the junior varsity division, Ken Jones held on to firsts in the 120 and 330 yard hurdles at the Bowie Relays.

Derwin Sneed and C. V. White paced the Houston runners. Sneed ran first in the 100 yard dash at the Bowie and Colt Relays, while taking first in the 220 yard dash at the district meet. White ran first in the 440 at the Colt Relays, but could only take third at Richland, Waxahachie and district meets.

Joyce Gambrell qualified at district by winning first in the 80 yard hurdles with a time of 11.2. Jeanean Dalby, Carol Cross, Angela Henry, and Gambrell took first in the 440 relay, beating Arlington High by a tenth of a second.

Other highlights at district were the 880 yard relay team who placed third and the mile relay with fifth. Dalby and Gambrell took fourth and fifth in the long jump, and triple jumper Dorothy Choate won sixth.

Lisa Sanders took fifth in the 880 yard dash, while Lisa Rainey finished fifth and sixth in the discus and shot put.

Girls also participated in Trimble Tech, the Duncanville Relays, the Richland Relays, and the Poly Parrott Relays, taking places in hurdles, long jump, discus, shot put, and relays.

Sam Houston's Baseball Team had one of the best seasons in the school's history. The team was well rounded with good pitching by Steve Dearman and Jimmy Sullivan, a solid defense, and the big bat of Jerry Dunn.

All of this added up to a bi-district championship for the Texans and almost took Houston by its regional opponent, the Midland Lee Rebels.

In a best of three series with the Rebels, Sam was edged out by one point in the first game, took the second game by three, and in the finale, edged out again by one.

In a regional clash with the Midland Lee Rebels, the Texans came out on the losing end of three very close games. At Clark Field in Fort Worth, the Texans lost their first game of the series, 1-0. Steve Dearman was the losing pitcher, giving up a run in the fourth when he walked a Rebel who then stole second, and then came in on a base hit to right field.

Houston then traveled to Midland where the team took the first game of a double header 9-6. Sam scored one run in the fourth inning and then burst loose for four in the fifth. After seven innings, the game was tied at 6-6. In the eighth, Ronnie Mabra hit a two run single to spark the Texans to a three run rally and a win in the second game of the series.

Sam went to the final game of the series, needing a win to take the regional crown. This was also an eight inning affair, which saw the Texans on the bottom half of a 7-6 score. In the first inning, an Alan Hemmle would-be-homerun was called foul by the third base umpire. This would have driven in the winning Texan runs.

District play started off with a game against Haltom. Sullivan began the game for the Texans and pitched five and two-thirds innings, but Glenn Hargrove, coming in to relieve the starter, was given the 5-4 victory. A Dearman homerun in the bottom of the seventh drove in the winning run. Dearman struck out nine on his way to a 2-0 shutout of the Richland Rebels.

At Lamar, Chuck Mathews pitched a full seven innings against the Vikes and got seven strikeouts to beat the Lamar team, 4-3.

The ball team had an easy time of it when they met the Burleson Elks. A Darrell Brewer grand slam in the first inning started it off for the Texans as they routed the Elks, 21-3. Brewer put another over the fence, along with Dearman and Glen Gibson. Robert Chapa took the win and pitched five strikeouts.

Houston then took its first district loss in the hands of the Bowie Volunteers. After two innings of scoreless ball, the Vols came up with three runs in the third to take the lead. Houston then countered by sending two runs across. This effort was to no avail as the Volunteers defeated the Texans, 4-2.

Defending champion Cleburne was handed its first loss of the season by the Texans. Alan Hemmle scored the game's only run on a passed ball by the Yellowjacket's catcher. Dearman took the win for the Texans and only gave up one hit.

Sullivan defeated Arlington High in a five inning affair, 11-1. Hemmle had a grand slam to help boost the score.

At the end of the first half, the Texans found themselves tied with Cleburne for the first half championship. In a tie-breaking game, the Texans clinched the first half title by beating the Jackets, 7-1. Dearman picked up the win with only four hits.

Sam lost its first game of the second half to Haltom. Hargrove was the losing pitcher, giving up six hits and suffering a four run rally in the bottom of the fourth inning. Houston got back on the winning track by defeating the Richland Rebels. Three homeruns were given up by each team.

Sam lost its second game of the second half on a tough one run decision to Bowie, 5-4.

Houston stole nine bases and had seven hits to help give the Texans their second win over Lamar, 3-2. Dearman was the inning pitcher with seven strikeouts.

Burleson errors helped the Texans get by the Elks, 8-3. Sam scored five runs in the seventh inning to secure the win. Houston exploded for 13 runs in a rout over Cleburne. Sullivan pitched five innings of shutout ball and took the win for the Texans, 13-0. The Texans lost their final game against Arlington by a score of 5-3.

Sam Houston faced Haltom in a best of three series to determine the champion of District 8-AAAA. Houston won the first game, 2-0 behind the excellent pitching of Dearman. Houston scored twice in the third inning to give the Texans the win.

In the second game of the series, Sam erased the Buffs from the playoffs by taking a 4-1 win. Sullivan hurled a three hitter and allowed only one unearned run to get the win.

Excellent second half gives JV district title

Junior Varsity hardballers had an outstanding year, as they took the district crown after a somewhat slow start. A 10-3 district record was just good enough to get by Haltom's 9-4 record and was complimented by a superb .293 team batting average. Joey Sikes led the Texans' bats with a .370 average, along with three other plus .300 hitters. Keith Richardson was the winningest JV pitcher, posting a 6-0 record. Mark Farrar and Bryon Irwin followed closely.

Haltom handed the Texans their first defeat in district, 4-3. The 10 inning affair saw the Texans take the lead in the top half of the tenth, but Haltom fought back to take the win. A James Bates grand slam in the first inning got the Texans rolling to a 20-0 rout of the Richland Rebels and their first win. The Texans took Lamar in a 10-3 victory.

In a wild game, the Houston squad came from behind with an eight run rally in the last inning to take the Burleson Elks, 14-9. Sam suffered its second loss of the year at the hands of the Bowie Volunteers in a 1-0 shutout. The Texans dropped

The Houston team, determined to win district, took the first game of the second half in an upset 8-3 sting over the Haltom Buffs. Sam then won the next two games against Richland and Lamar. Sam then harassed the Bowie Vols and won the game in six innings, 12-2. The next stop was against Cleburne where the Texans took the 8-1 win. Sikes went three for four in this game with three RBIs.

Houston then slipped by the Colts, 7-6. Keith Richardson was the winning pitcher. When the Varsity Club went to the playoffs, they took with them two players from the JV, Joey Sikes and Steve Walraven.

Called off practices and games delayed because of snow plagued the Sam soccer team during the winter months.

Teammates turned in an 0-5-1 record, while the JV did little better, taking a record of 1-3-2.

In district play the teams faced only schools from Arlington because they are the only schools to adopt this activity.

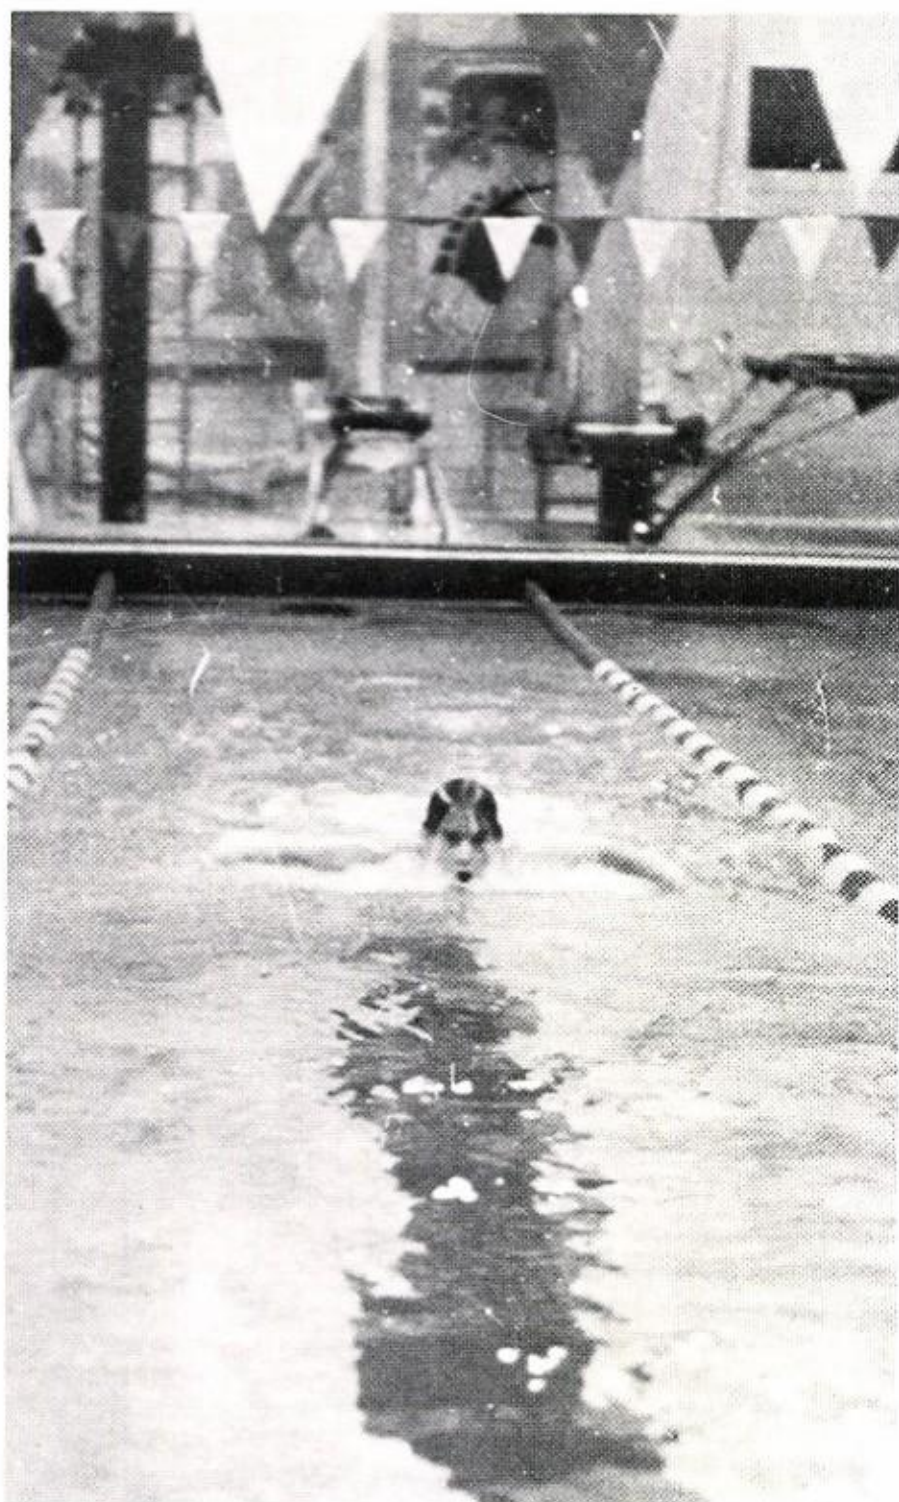

Almost 40 students from all classifications participated in soccer under the coaching direction of Mr. Gary Schutte.

Sam students take titles

The support and experience of the swim team captains, Greg Goombi and Peggy Goodenough, made for a successful year.

At the AISD Swimming and Diving Championships held in December, first place winners were Goombi in the 100 Backstroke and the 400 Freestyle relay team. Goodenough placed first in the 100 Freestyle and went on to qualify for the regional competition. The dual meet record for the season was 5-3 with Lamar winning the overall competition.

At the fund raising Aqua King and Queen contest, Goombi and Jennifer Cotten took the titles with a combined money total of $438.17. Sam won first place with Lamar coming in second.

Other tournaments included Irving, Bell, and Duncanville. Out of the 15 people on the team, only 12 members played in the tournaments.

The Texans competed in the district tournament and had back luck. Mark Kinman and Larry Usher were the only members of Sam to place in district. Kinman and Usher took third in doubles. Curtis Gilley and Brad Wayland won the doubles division in the city-wide tournament at The Wimbledon Tennis Club.

Weather halts golfers; Sam adds girls team

Bad weather was a major cause of a disappointing season for the Houston golfers. Numerous practices were called off because of the weather. Low temperatures were also the cause of the cancellation of two tournaments.

Before the bad weather set in, the team had two tournaments and did well in these. The district tournaments were held at Denton on March 14 and 19. Other tournaments were played at Longview, Diamond Oaks in Haltom, and Grand Prairie golf courses.

Practices were held under the direction of Coach Wallace Johnson. At Lake Arlington and Rolling Hills golf courses, students sharpened their skills. Team members were also given junior memberships at the Grand Prairie course.

A girls' golf team was added to the extracurricular activities at Sam, but by the end of the season only one of the three girls remained active. Sharyn Lewis participated in several tournaments and did well in each.

The group had some bad luck in January when 50's Day, originally scheduled for January 19, was snowed out. Students dressed up the following Friday, but the 50's Dance could not be re-scheduled.

Several movies and cartoons shows were put on during the year by Student Congress. They included ones for Halloween, 50's Day and Twirp Week.

Club presidents and class officers worked together in the Senate. Elected representatives made up the house. The Third House contained volunteers. Sponsors were Mrs. Darcy Kirby, Mr. G. A. Glenn, Mr. James Warren, and Mr. John Elliott.

Marching band takes superior rating at UIL

Although football games and pep rallies highlighted marching season for the 115-120 member band, the real climax came at the UIL contest in TCU Stadium when students took a superior rating. The band was under the field direction of drum majors Richard Lynch and Jarrett Miller.

Two concert bands were directed by Mr. Bob Rober and Mr. Jeremy Walker. The first band won two excellent ratings at UIL and a superior and excellent at Castleberry. Musicians presented a spring concert in May.

Greg Copeland was granted a $100 scholarship at the spring banquet. Band camp scholarships were won by juniors Pete Willis, Bonnie Shultz, and sophomores Pat Fuchs and Gwen Witt. Sherry Cunningham was named outstanding bandsman and Jason Phillips won the band service award.

Super Band members performed as the orchestra for "Darn Yankees" and "Celebration", All-City Orchestra, Little Olympics, and ground breaking ceremonies for the YMCA pool. Sophomores marched in the July 4 parade.

Choirs 'sing-a-song' of busy programs, schedules

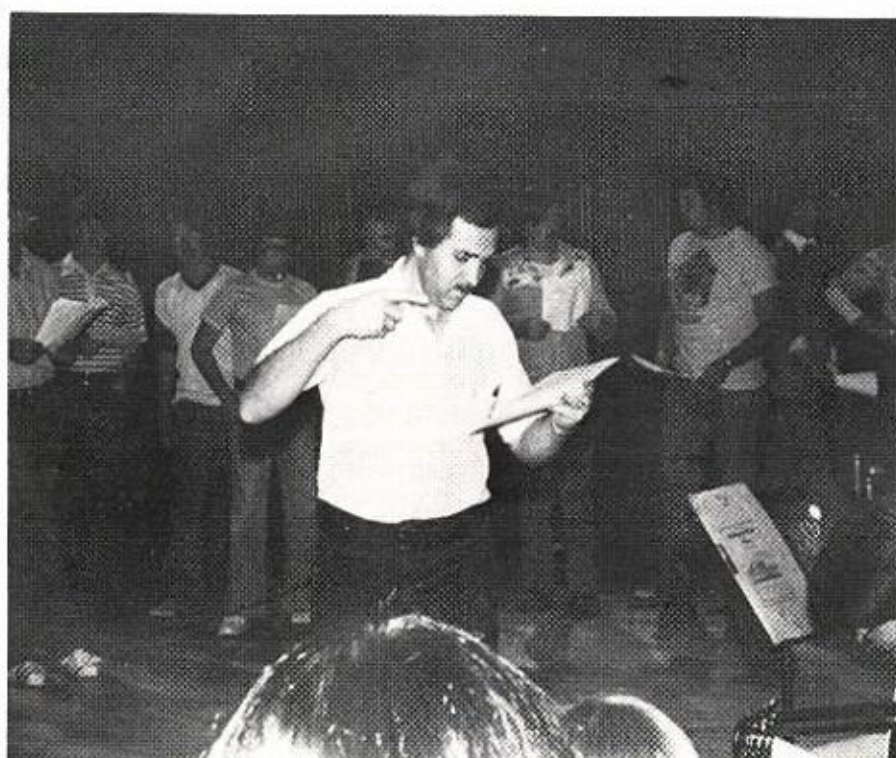

Rehearsals and hard work began early for choir members. On October 10, A Cappella Choir went to the State Fair to compete in Mu-Fest. The singers brought home the second place trophy.

Singing Texans, which is made up of 26 male voices, performed a program for the Lions Club on December 15. The annual breakfast for the two groups was on May 23 at Sambo's.

A Cappella Choir, totaling 79 members, presented a program at UTA in an All-City Christmas Festival on December 6. Sophomore and A Cappella performed a Christmas show for the school on December 12-13.

On May 11-13, all of the choirs compiled a wide range of songs that made up Celebration '78. For the final programs of the year, the A Cappella Choir sang at Baccalaureate services on May 28, and on May 30, appeared at the Graduation Exercises.

Tex-Annes, spirited on and off the field

Tex-Annes helped keep the school spirited throughout the year. Under the direction of Miss Patricia Riggs the drill team always worked hard for the school.

At the pep rallies, even when spirit was low, the Tex-Annes never stopped showing they were behind their school. The girls helped start yells and did routines.

Officers performed a special routine at each pep rally. The student body enjoyed the new routines as well as the traditional ones such as Long Tall Texan.

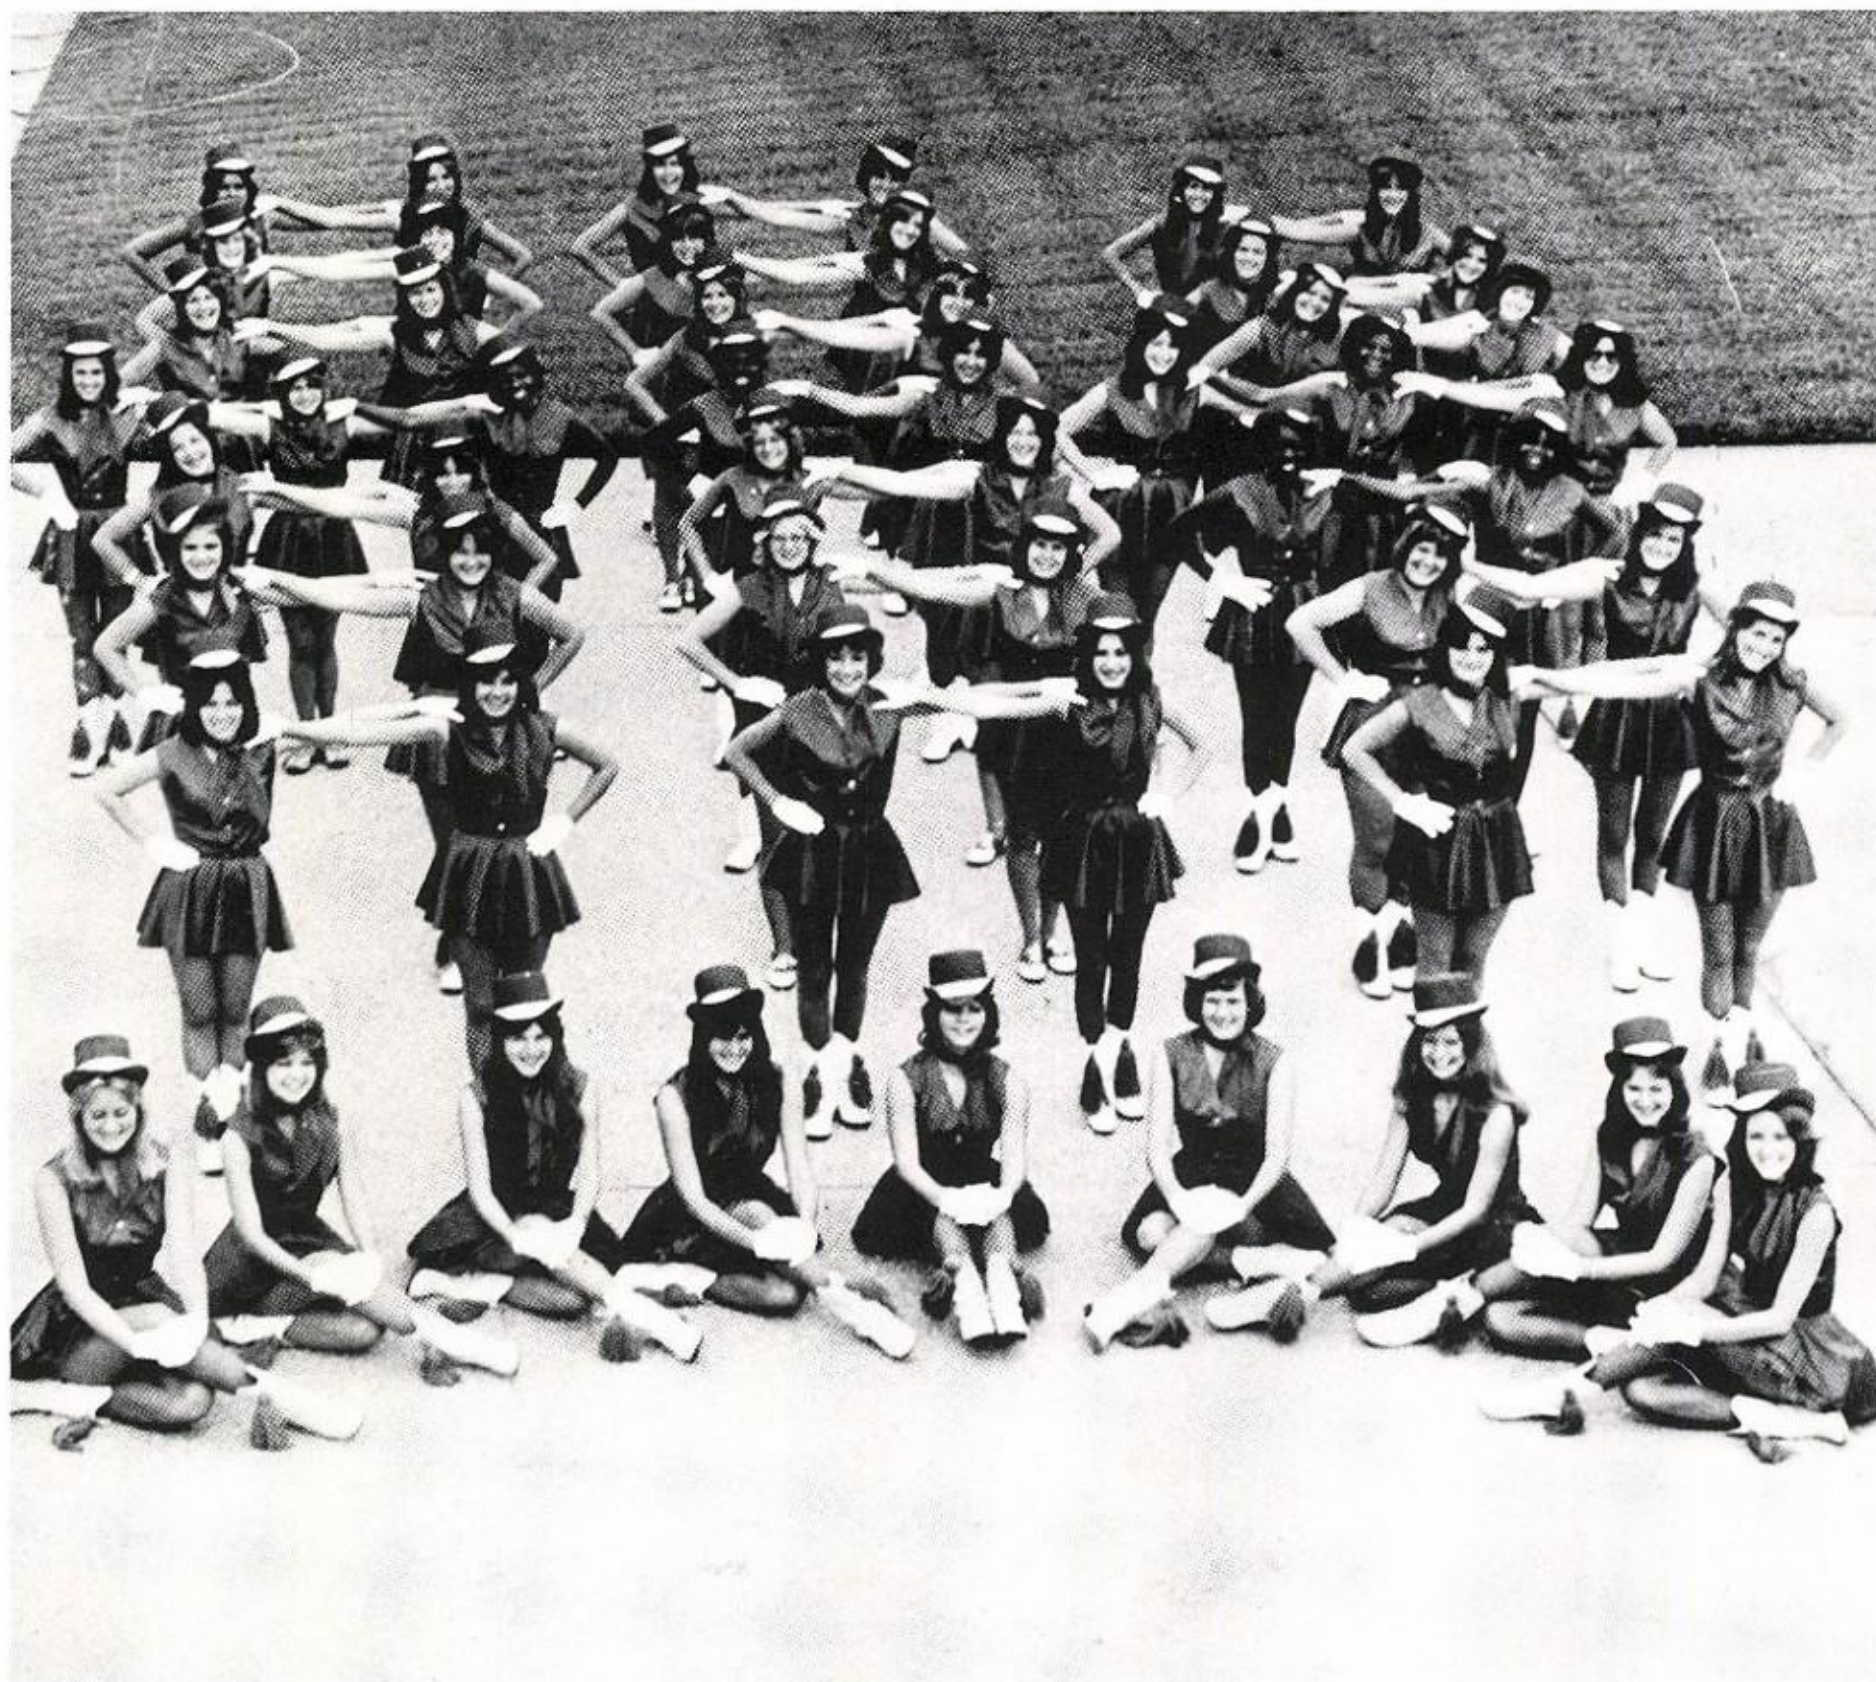

Everyone remembers the superb routines performed by the drill team during the football game's halftime. The Tex-Annes always worked together during the games to show they were really behind the team.

The Tex-Annes also performed during the halftime of the basketball games. The girls were also selected to perform at the UTA basketball games.

The girls were invited to attend several contests during the spring. The Tex-Annes did an excellent job of representing the school.

The drill team was involved in many activities and stayed active throughout the year.

AFS proves 'it's a small world after all'

American Field Service, with sponsor Mrs. Marilyn Harrell, was a club which offered students from other countries a chance to study in the United States.

Americans Abroad was sponsored by Mrs. Judy Baskey and selected students from Sam to go to foreign countries. Other sponsors were Mrs. Phyllis Collins and Mrs. Marjean Kitts.

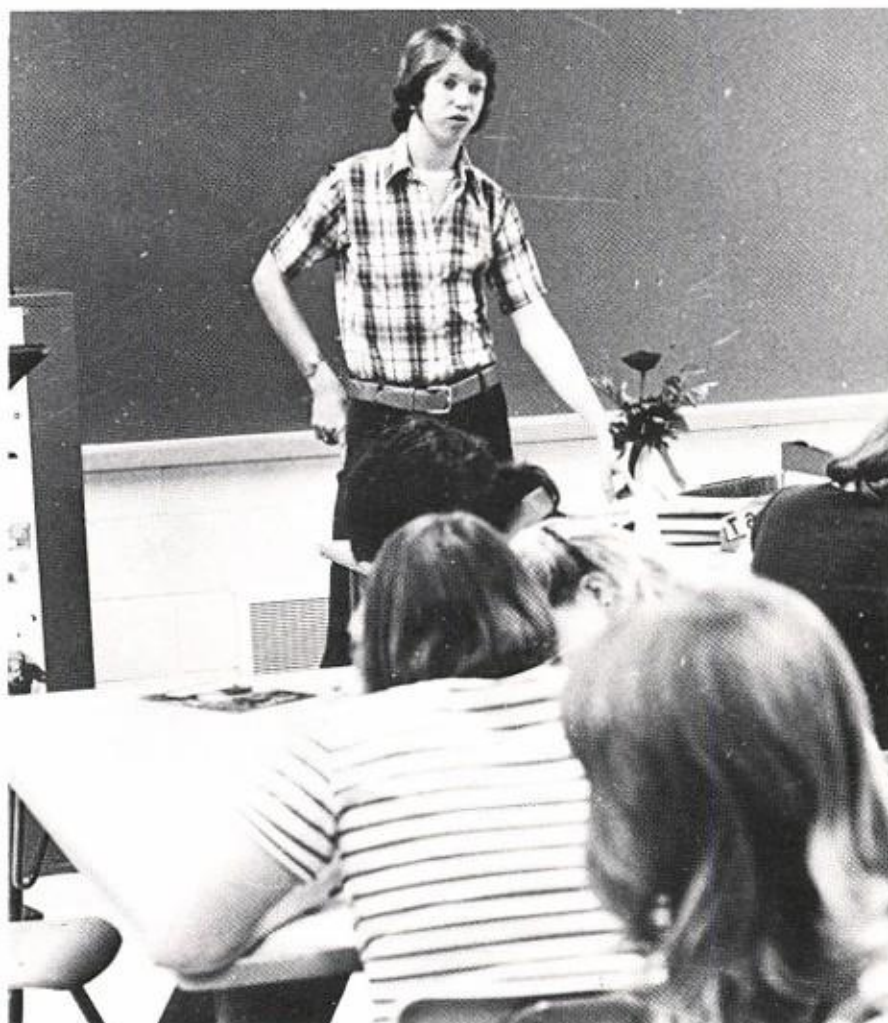

About 50 members made up AFS. The club welcomed exchange students at the airport and gave them send-offs when they left. Americans Abroad from Sam included Tim Cooley, who spent a year in New Zealand, and Diana Gardner, who was in Turkey last summer. Ugur Soku was the foreign exchange student from Duzce, Turkey.

The club sponsored AFS Day in March. Five foreign exchange students came to Sam and during two assemblies answered questions about their home countries. AFS president Diana Gardner led the discussion. Following the assemblies, the students visited individual classes.

The club raised over $950 in their friendship link contest between homerooms. Mrs. Judy Baskey's homeroom won and received a steak dinner at Bonanza.

All students taking foreign languages were eligible to be members of the Foreign Language Club. The FLC had three sections: German Club, Spanish Club, and French Club.

Competition between the clubs started early in the year. The three groups sang the school fight song in their respective languages at a pep rally. The German Club was judged as doing the best job.

The clubs showed they could work well together also. At Christmas the FLC helped a needy family. Students brought clothes, canned goods and toys for the family which included 10 children. Club funds were used to buy Christmas dinner and special presents for each member of the family.

In February the club had an ice skating party. FLC members skated for $1.50 at the Ice Chalet.

NHS requires several different qualities

Students who made superior grades became members of the National Honor Society. There were 58 members in NHS at the beginning of the year who met the first Wednesday of each month. Mrs. Betty Whitaker, Mrs. Becky Perrett, Mrs. Nelda Shipley, and Mr. James Adams were sponsors for the club.

During the year NHS members had a tutoring service for students who needed extra help with their studies.

At Homecoming, the club sponsored the Homecoming Reception for ex-Sam students.

For Valentine's Day, NHS members sold Val-ograms to students.

With March came the induction of 72 new members. Students were required to have a 10 point average. A reception was held in the cafeteria for the new NHS'ers.

Thespians hold annual banquet, present awards

Under the direction of Mr. Don Blankenship, Thespians did an excellent job of representing Sam Houston through their performances.

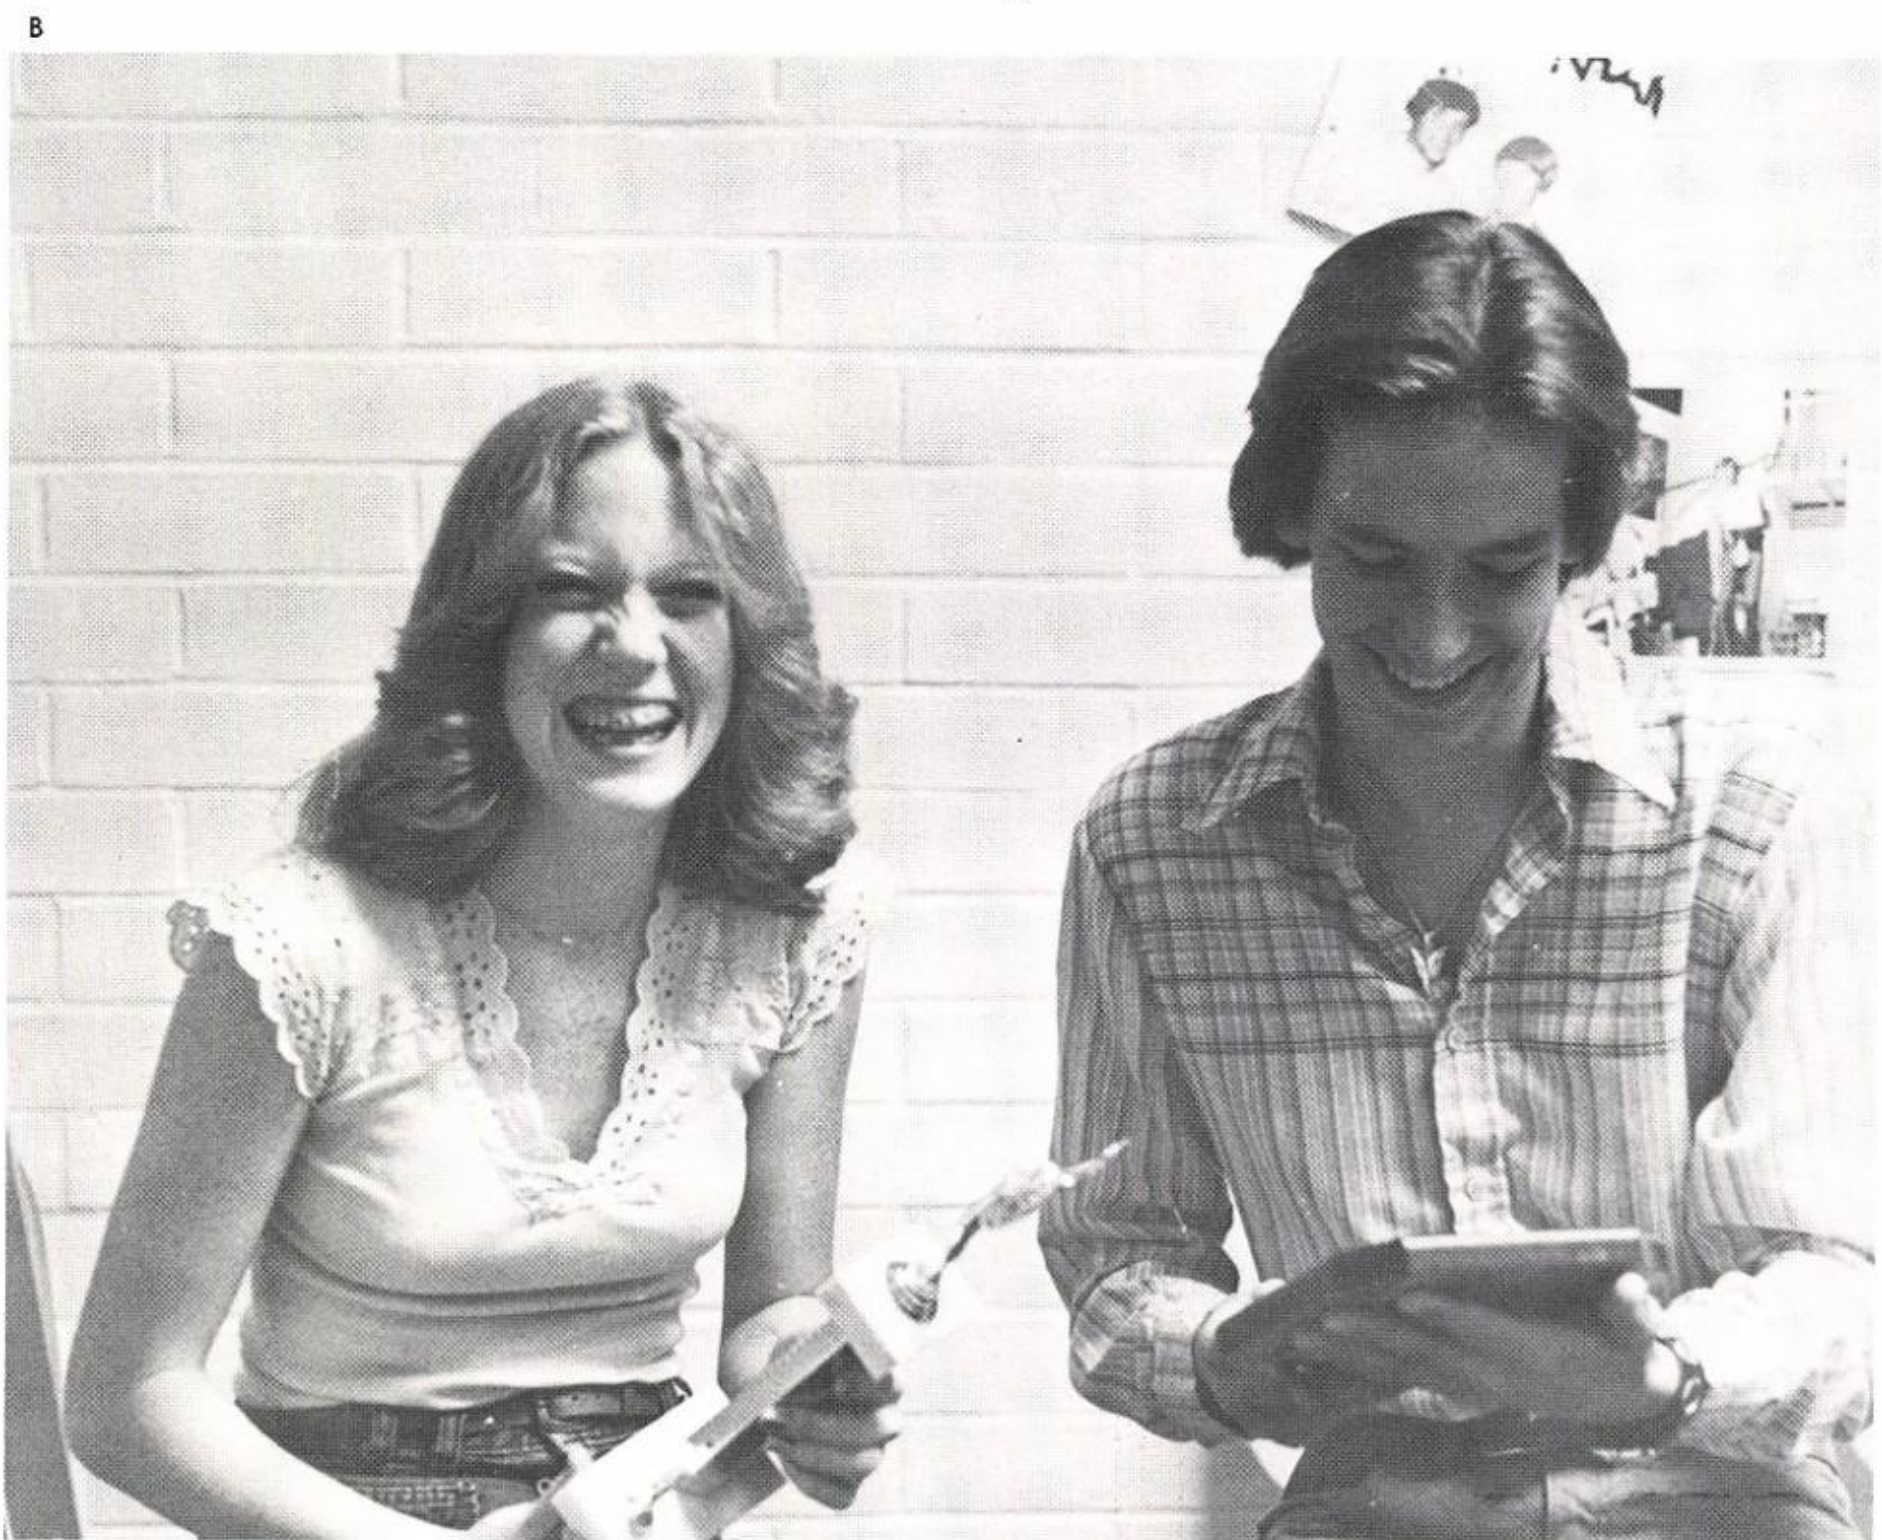

Early in the year, Thespians presented "The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail" and "Peter Pan." For one-act competition, the group presented "A Company of Wayward Saints" which was selected as alternate at Regional Competition.

At the annual Thespian Banquet Joni Brake and David Pucek were awarded as best Thespians. Other awards were given to David Homb, Tony Perrett, Joni Brake, and Debi Wells. Kerry Owens, Mindy Money, Opal Mahoney, Warren Spencer, and James Healy also received awards.

NFL member journeys to Nationals again

National Forensic League was a national honor society. Its 25 members participated in competitive speech work.

NFL member David Pucek went to national competition for the second year. He placed first in humorous and dramatic interpretation on the state level. In June he went to Chicago where he competed on the state level.

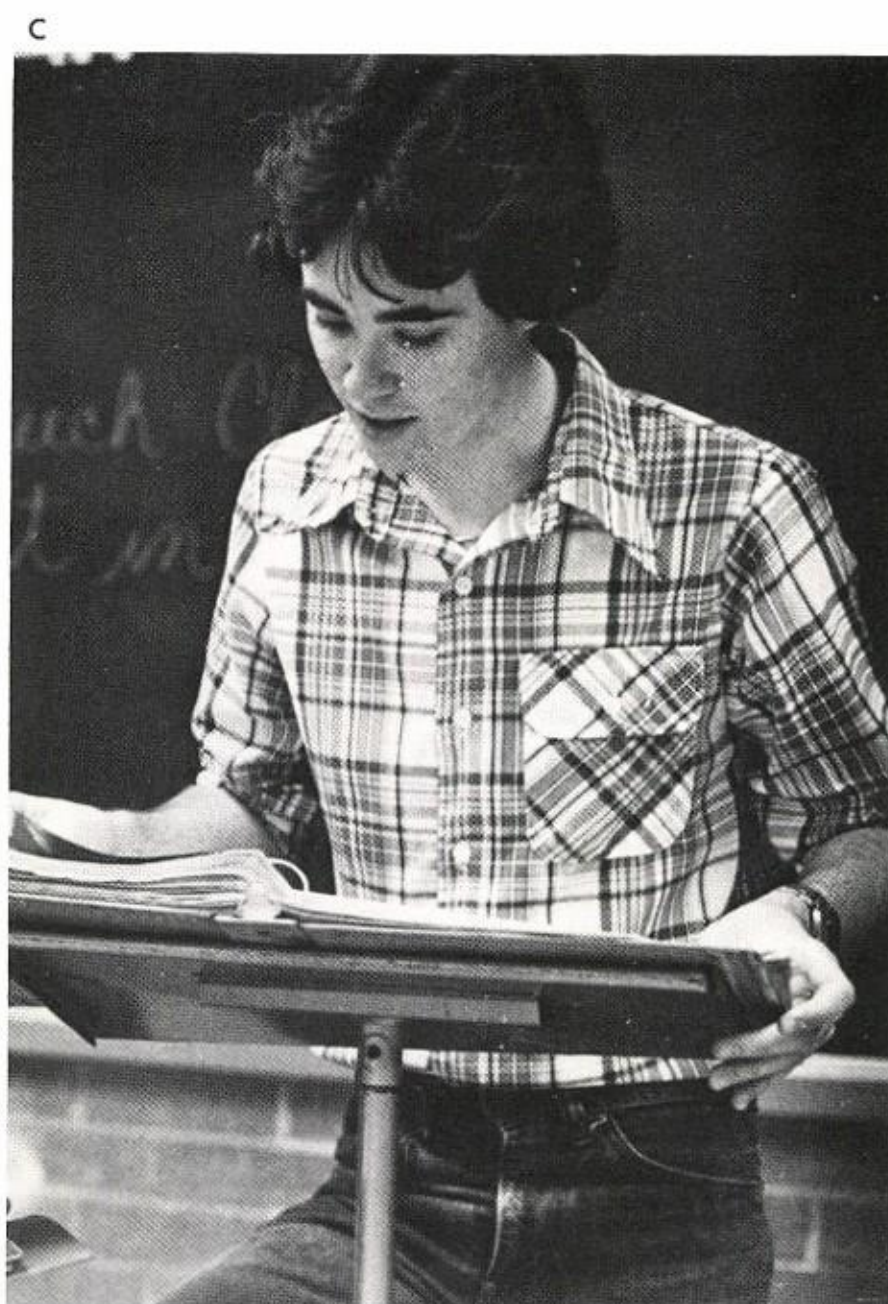

Ken Jenkins became the first Sam Houston student to earn a Double Ruby. This is a special distinction among NFL members. Ken had to earn over 500 points through extemporaneous speaking, oratory, and debate competitions.

At the NFL banquet held on May 2, awards were given to Ken Jenkins as best debater and Sandee Hart as best novice debater. Other awards included Amanda Jansen, best individual events person; Barney Self, the sunshine award; and Malcolm Gilmore, most improved.

"Cream of the crop" journalists qualified for Quill and Scroll by attending seminars and winning awards.

Although 10 points were required for membership, four students earned 20 points for honor status: Billye Choate, Eileen Hollingsworth, Steve Sisney, and Jamie Williams.

Quill and Scroll members watched the filming of the Texas News and toured Channel 5 on March 14.

More than 150 attended the city-wide banquet, held at Colonial Cafeteria on April 27.

Texans Talk winners were Billye Choate, Nancy Collins, Andy Douglas, Kim Hester, Judy Horrell, Julie McNeil, Lynn Mercer, and Steve Sisney.

FBLA provides material for business classes

A

Future Business Leaders of America was an organization open to any student who took at least one business course. The club included 44 members and was sponsored by all the business teachers.

Sponsors included Mrs. Doris Berry, Mrs. Dorothy Ellis, Mrs. Carolyn Hammonds, Mrs. Margaret Hattendorf, Mrs. Marilyn Tareilo, Mrs. Sue Williams, and Mrs. Jo Wolfe.

Throughout the year FBLA members sold paper to the typing classes. On the third Wednesday of each month, club members met and discussed upcoming activities.

Cherokee FHA holds annual faculty tea

Future Homemakers of America had about 150 active members. Members of the six chapters, who met during the class periods, participated in homemaking classes for at least one quarter.

Sponsors of FHA, Mrs. Lavoyce Avery, Mrs. Martha Warner, and Mrs. Margaret Tannahill had planned a Christmas Dance. This was cancelled due to snow.

Also at Christmas, different chapters sponsored events such as a party for the children at Veda Knox, taking decorated trees to the needy, visiting the elderly, and making candy favors for the people at Arlington Villa and the Veda Knox children. FHA members also had a faculty tea during both lunch hours.

In the spring, FHA sold baked goods at the Texan Day Carnival. Members also planned an end of the year picnic.

Welcoming new students to Sam was one of the activities of the Newcomers' Club. Showing students around the school and hosting the new students' registration and reception in August and September were among other duties of the club.

At Christmas the club had a party at sponsor Mrs. Carolyn Hammonds' house. They also gift wrapped packages at a local K-Mart store as a fund-raising project. On Valentine's Day, Val-o-grams were sent to all new students who had come to Sam since January 2.

On March 31, the Newcomers held a dance for the student body in the cafeteria.

Tune up or bow out . . . 'strings' end second year

Under the direction of Miss Rosalyn Waldorf, orchestra students played different types of music. This was the first year for a full orchestra at Sam.

The orchestra accompanied the choir during their "Celebration '78" program. Musicians also set the mood for the musical "Darn Yankees."

Although this was only the second year for the orchestra, they represented the school well. Ensemble received a superior rating at UIL competition.

Keywanettes, with sponsor Miss Judy Thomas, did many projects to help retarded children in the community.

During football season the club sold confetti and gave the money they earned to the Arlington Association for Retarded Citizens. They also gave a Christmas party for the children and participated in the March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon in April.

Photography students enjoyed learning many different techniques of taking pictures. Mr. Wallace Johnson, also a golf coach, taught the 75 photography students.

Each quarter Mr. Johnson took his classes on a field trip. They went to different places in the local area and experimented with special effects.

The students used high contrasts, selective focusing, and also took pictures of the landscape. Photographers also photographed themselves taking pictures by using reflections against the light.

Students also took portraits and experimented with trick photography. Throughout the year, the Photography Department was responsible for pictures put in the school newspaper and annual.

FCA brings all athletes together as brothers

Fellowship of Christian Athletes, FCA, met on Monday nights during the year. Meetings were held in the Village Square Apartment club house.

FCA was an organization of athletes which met to discuss problems and experiences. Through the meetings the members saw how Christianity could relate to them as student athletes.

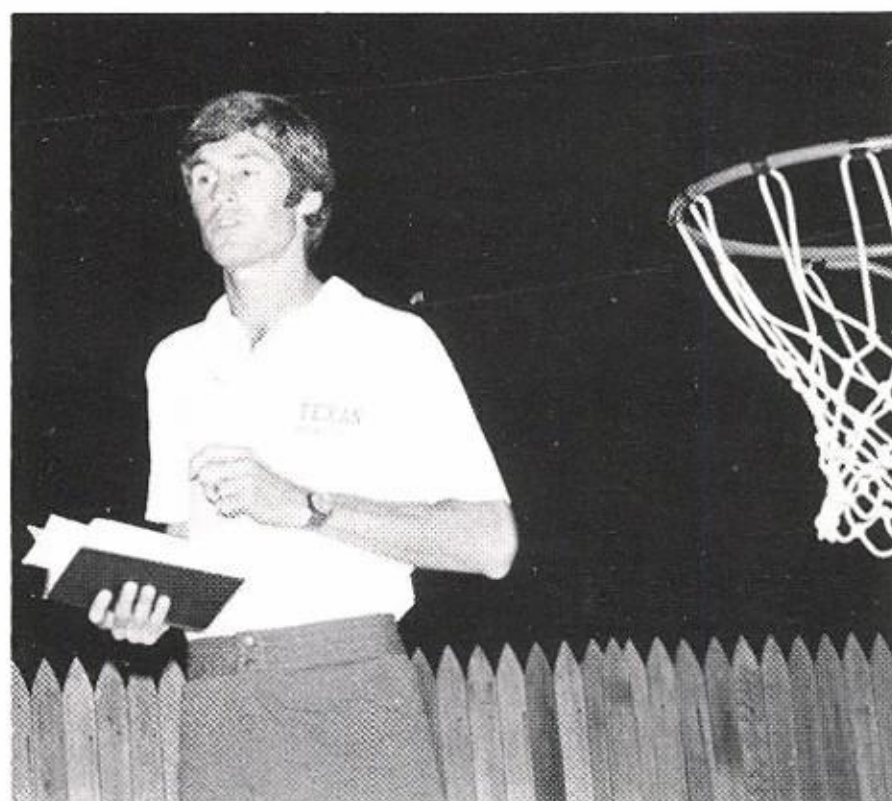

At some of the FCA meetings members listened to guest speakers. During other meetings, the group listened to records with a Christian theme. Often members had discussions.

FCA sponsors were Coach Don Louis, Coach Gary Schutte, and Coach James Hyden. Under their direction the club was active throughout the year.

Christian Fellowship continues helping others

Christian Fellowship was a club for students who were interested in learning more about the role of Christianity in their lives.

Christian Fellowship meetings were held on the second Wednesday of the month during activity schedule. During the spring, meetings were also held on Tuesday evenings at one of the member's homes.

At the meetings members sang songs. Sometimes a few members put on a skit or gave a devotional. Often there were discussions under the direction of the club's sponsors, Mr. Norman Brake and Mr. Frank Turk.

CVAE members work on and off campus

CVAE was a work program which offered jobs for the non-skilled or semi-skilled. Students involved with this organization went to school in the morning and to work in the afternoon. Mr. Hugh Brown and Mr. Rod Gann sponsored the CVAE club which had 55 members.

Each six weeks CVAE members met and discussed their various occupations and upcoming activities. At Christmas the club had its annual breakfast with a guest speaker.

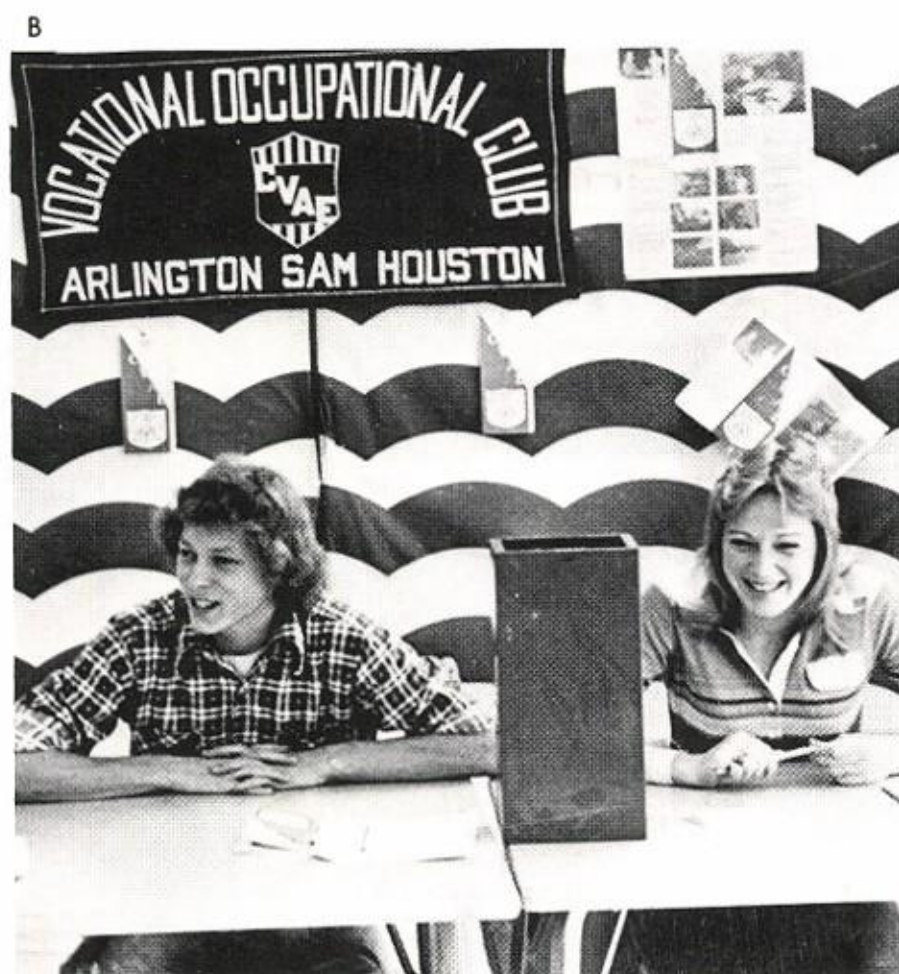

As a special project, members of CVAE painted all the trash cans in the school parking lots in the spring. Club members also had an outing at the end of the year.

Jack Robinson was named outstanding CVAE student of the year at the Cherokee Assembly. In district competition Bobby Burks won first place and went on to state competition in Waco. In state contest he had three student exhibits and placed second in each one.

DECA sends competitor to Washington

Students interested in retail sales, wholesale, or service selling were members of DECA. Club activities included parties, as well as a leadership lab in Fort Worth, a state meeting in San Antonio, and an area meeting at L. D. Bell.

Chet Rice went to national competition in Washington D.C. in May after a state win in food service.

A banquet in the school cafeteria honored both employers and employees. Speaker at the dinner was Mrs. Barbara Haskett from Sanger Harris.

Senior James Meur was chosen as outstanding DE student from Chapter I, while Damon Cote was selected from Chapter II. Damon was the first sophomore who has ever received this award.

Outside activities planned by club members included a Christmas dinner at Steak and Ale and a balloon dart throw, a roulette wheel, and a bowling pin contest at the Texan carnival, and an end of the year picnic.

Sponsors were Mrs. Sharon Phillips and Mrs. Janet Holland.

HECE, learning to prepare for future

HECE was a club, as well as a work program, dealing with home economics. The organization had many activities throughout the year.

The club had many joint activities with the other high schools in Arlington. Early in the year, members of HECE had a picnic and in October had a Halloween party. At Christmas, a joint breakfast was held at member Teri Tamplen's house.

In November, HECE members sold ads for the student directory and helped OEA sell the directories.

At Christmas, the club made door decorations for Arlington Nursing Home. Members also had a party at Edelweiss.

Early in February the club went to a vocational carnival and in March participated in a charity fair at Six Flags Mall.

Two activities in April included an employer and employee luncheon and a teacher appreciation tea.

OEA, Office Education Association, started off its year early by working on the school directory. Members organized and typed all the information. OEA also made programs for all the basketball games.

At Christmas, OEA adopted two needy families. Members collected food, clothes, and toys to give to the families through the welfare department.

The employer-employee banquet was the highlight of the year. Melody Wellman was honored at the banquet as outstanding student.

On February 20, OEA members participated in a competition at TCJC. Beverly Walters, Kim Brand Johns, Sandy Smidt, and Karen Beverly all received first places and advanced to state, which was held in San Antonio. Beverly Walters placed fourth in state in Stenographic II competition.

VICA, opportunities in various fields

Six areas make up the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. Students involved in these clubs were enrolled in cosmetology, radio-TV repair, auto body, auto mechanics, building trades, and ICT.

VICA students got together with parties and breakfasts, but cosmetology members expanded their activities. During February cosmetology students raised $135 in a Cut-a-thon. They also had a pen sale and many service projects.

Sam students placed in state competition which was held in San Antonio. George Henderson placed first with his ICT project. David McNeely received second.

In auto body competition, Dan Glover, James Witt, and Gary Harris placed first. Don Cudmore came in first for auto mechanics, and Jimmy Hofer was first in building trades.

Eight Sam students placed in cosmetology competition. Raenita Keith received first place, while Janine Willingham and Paula Hegarty took second. Third place was given to Bobbye Davis, Karen Johnson, and Shirlynn Ritter. Linda Hegarty and Jillaina Harbrough were fourth.

Texans Talk staffers combine fun, hard work

Texans Talk staffers attended many workshops and took many field trips during the year. Although members of the staff worked hard, they also had a lot of fun.

To be on the paper staff Journalism I was required. While in J-I, students published one issue of Texans Talk.

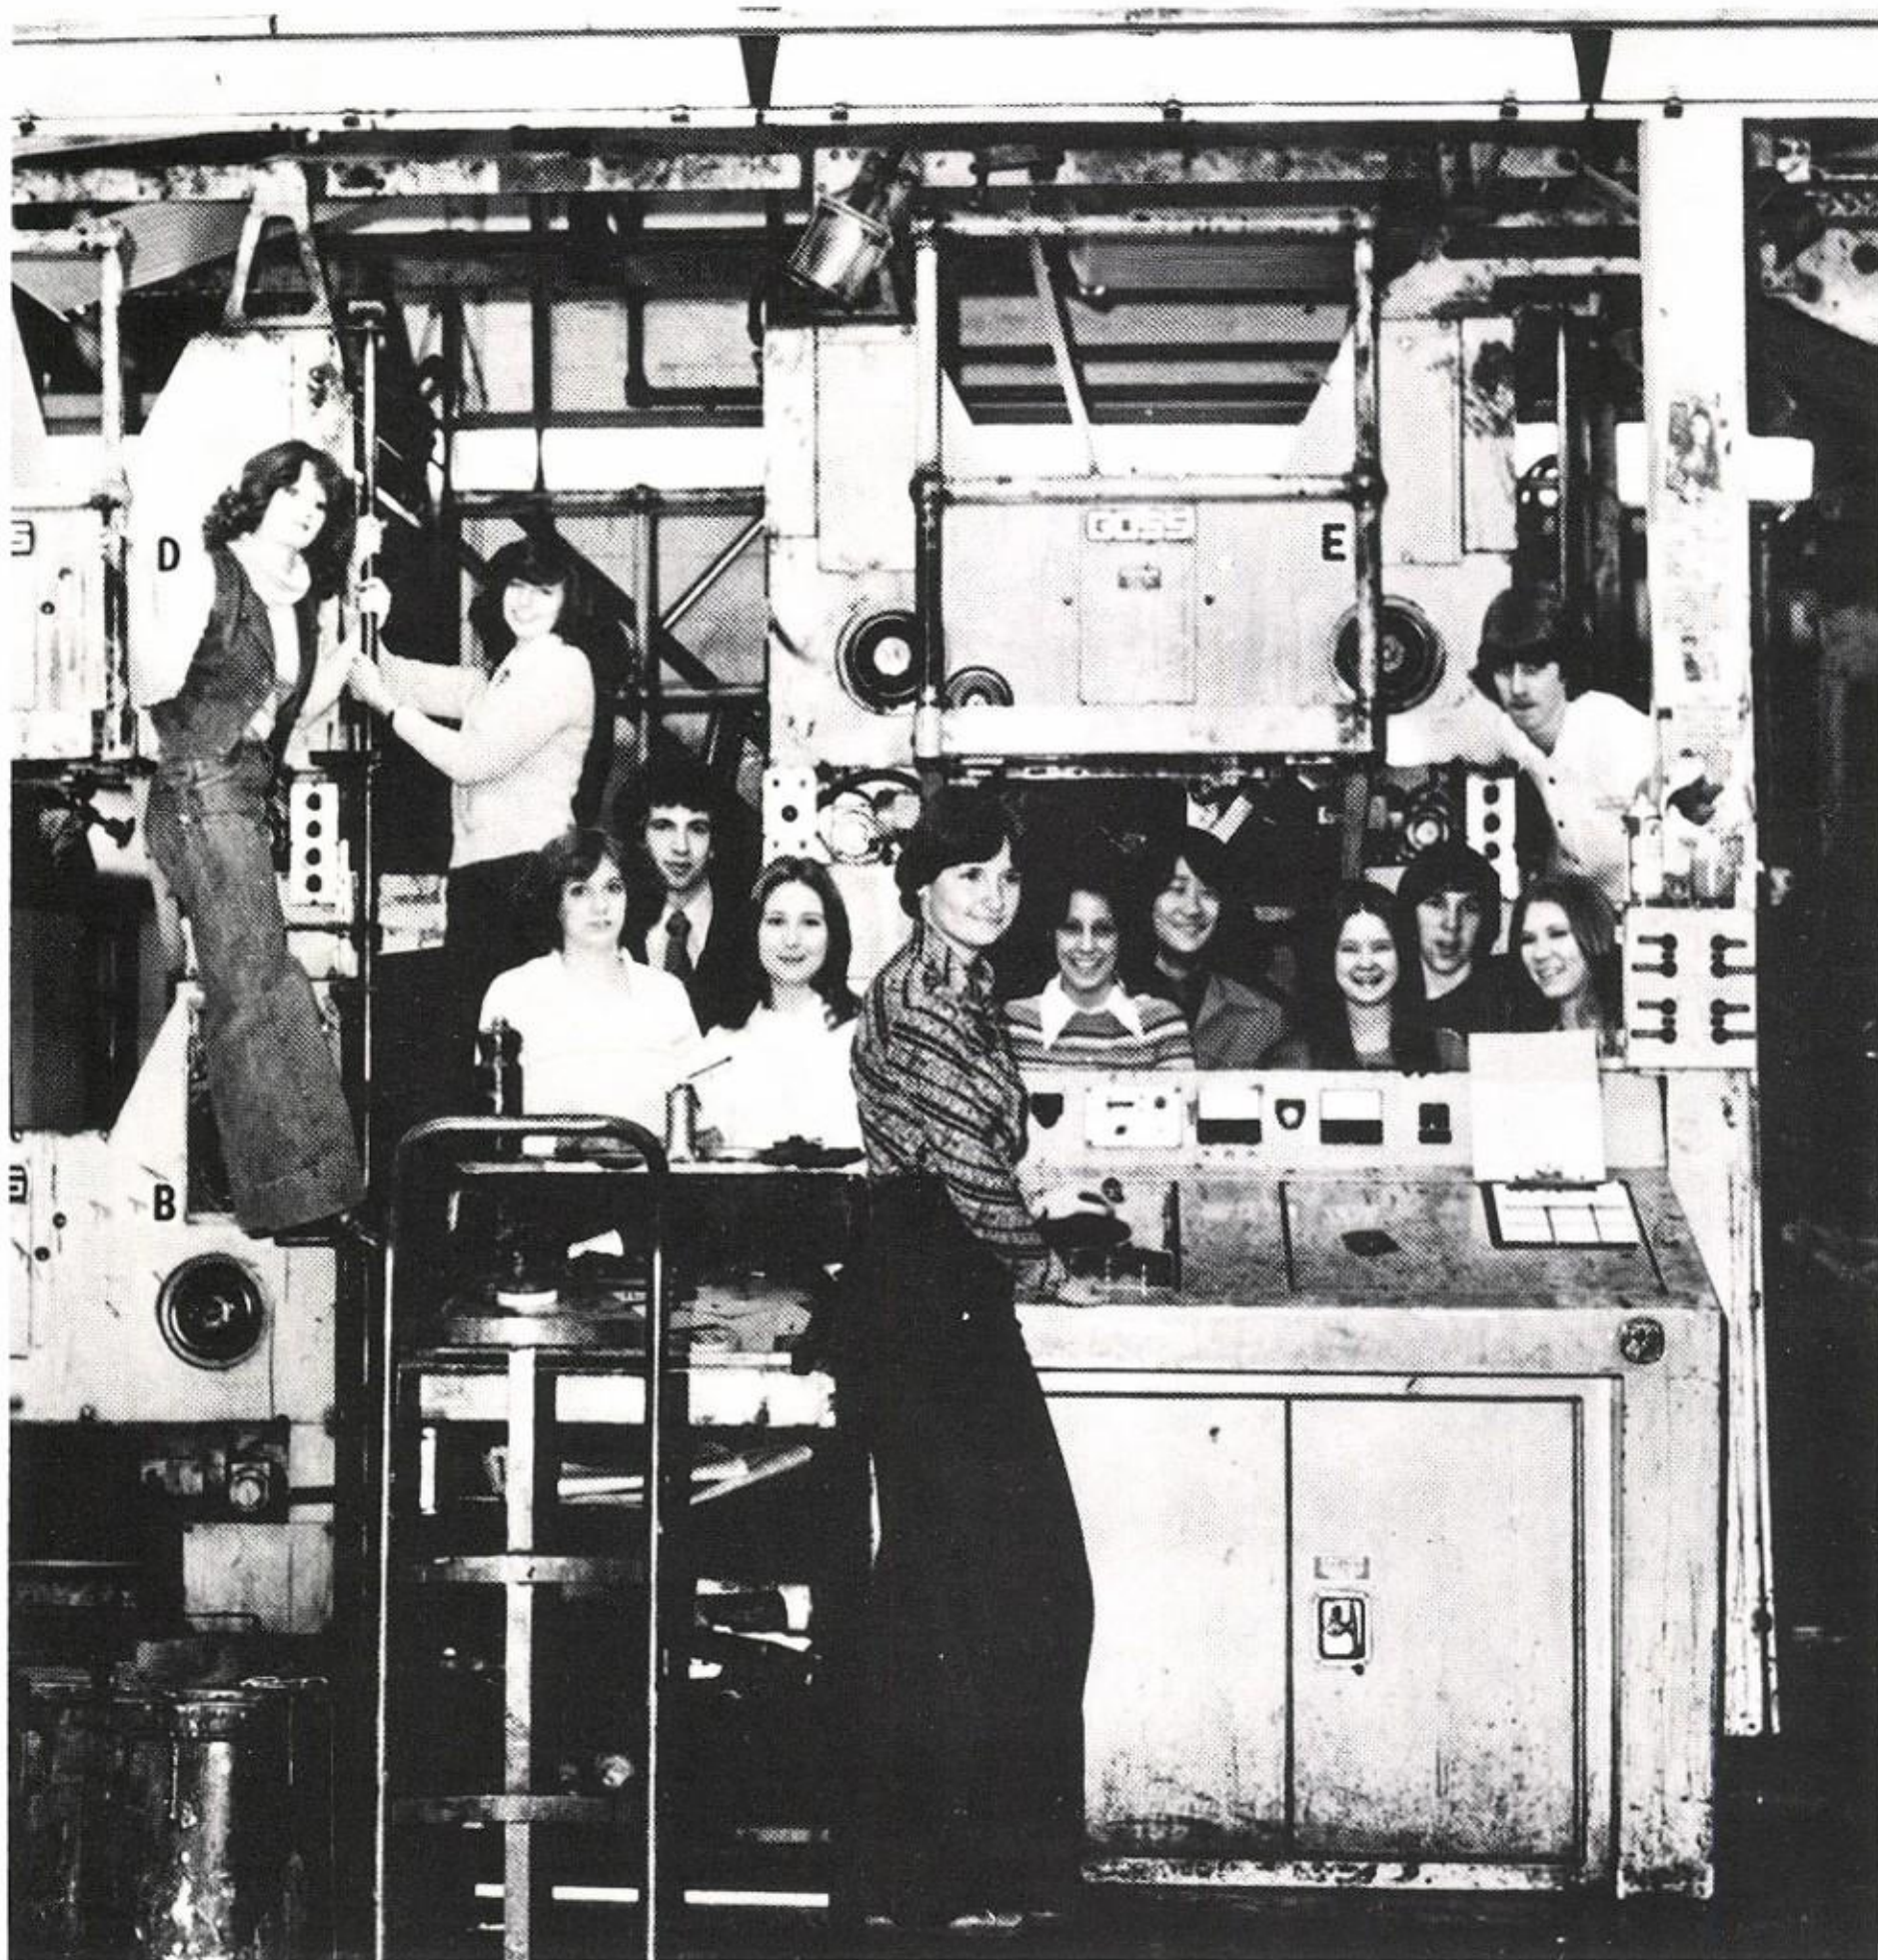

Three staff members attended a workshop at UTA the last of July. In September, staffers went to a workshop at TCU.

At UT in March, another workshop was held for students involved in journalism. Students ate at Magic Time Machine and Spaghetti Warehouse while they were in Austin. Members of the paper staff also attended a seminar at SMU in March.

Four staff members participated in UIL at Cleburne high school. Also in April, staffers toured the Star Telegram.

In October, journalism students won $500 and a trophy from Chick-fil-a. They out ate other area high schools.

Staffers take first place at UTA workshop

Being on the annual staff meant more than just meeting deadlines and planning the yearbook. A Christmas pixie party, the celebration of staffers' birthdays, and breakfasts at The Old Main Street Cafe were among special activities of the staff. It also meant trips and workshops to better the journalists' skills.

Last summer a group of six from the staff went to a workshop at the University of Texas at Arlington and won first place in yearbook design. Another workshop was held at the University of Texas at Austin the following spring.

Staff members also took a tour of Taylor Publishing Company early in the school year. Staffers were shown how the annual was put together.

With Texan Day came the traditional saloon sponsored by the Journalism Department. Milk shakes were served.

PTSA hosts speaker for student enjoyment

Through the PTSA, parents, teachers, and students showed they cared about the school. Sam Houston was the only area high school with students included in the organization.

In October and March, the PTSA helped sponsor open houses to allow teachers and parents to become acquainted.

The PTSA was also responsible for getting Mr. Jack Jackson from American Airlines to come and speak to the student body. Mr. Jackson spoke on Communications.

On January 30, the PTSA held a College Night at Arlington High School. Students learned helpful information for choosing a college.

Mr. B. H. Remyense: dedicated says it all

Chief booster and number one fan, Principal B.H. Remyense kept his eye on Sam activities all year. In his fifth year as principal, Mr. Remyense had been vice-principal and coach.

In addition to his responsibilities here, Mr. Remyense served on the evaluation committees for Grand Prairie and Irving and attended the National Principal's Convention in February in Anaheim, Calif.

Sam's pulse kept alive by secretaries, nurses

Secretaries and nurses played a vital role in keeping the school running smoothly and effectively.

Office skills were only part of the requirements needed to be a secretary. Patience, a sense of humor, and an understanding of high school life are also necessary.

Nurses found that a touch of ESP proved beneficial in their work. Nurses had to figure out which students were coming down with the flu and which ones were just sick of school.

Mrs. Audine Whitten: retired but remembered

After a presentation of luggage and an "Audine Whitten Day" the principal's secretary retired on January 25, after 21 years with Arlington schools.

Secretary to both Sam principals, Mr. H.W. Key and Mr. B.H. Remyne, Mrs. Whitten came to SHHS from Arlington High in 1964.

A dedicated worker with a vast knowledge of school business, Mrs. Whitten was considered irreplaceable by many who came in contact with her each day.

In her years here she was honored by many clubs with plaques of appreciation. In a called meeting the day before she left, members of the faculty and staff gave her a set of luggage and homemaking teachers set up an open house in the family living room.

Librarians encourage use of materials

For the students who liked to read or just to see a window, there was the library. Librarians were more than happy to help students find what they needed for research projects, or to let them sit in the quiet.

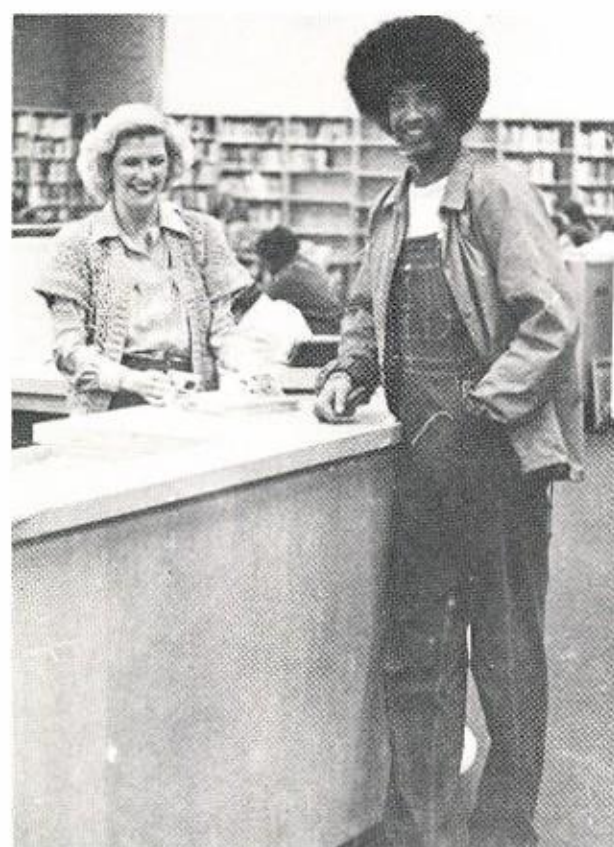

Another responsibility of the librarians was to make student ID cards to allow students to get in various school activities.

Librarians also handled all resource materials. They took care of ordering, processing, and circulating books, magazines, audio-visual equipment and other related materials.

Variety adds spirit, spice to menus

Cafeteria ladies broke up the monotony of lunch by recognizing special days and events and making dishes to fit the occasion. They also tried to introduce new products to students.

During football season, the ladies made special cakes and cookies supporting the football team. They also sent a special cake to the football coaches before the district game.

On Columbus Day, the traditional hats were worn and on Fifties Day and Texan Day the staff dressed up. A special menu was also planned for these days.

Projects, trips, books add to language classes

While all students were required to take English each year in high school, many students also elected to take a foreign language.

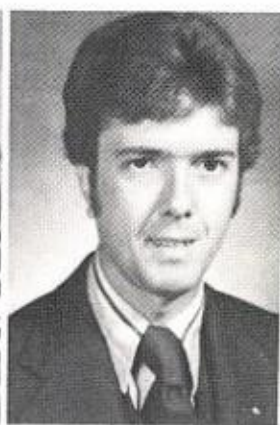

Sophomore English students kept busy reading stories and diagramming sentences. Juniors spent the year reading American Literature and writing their junior themes. Seniors spent their final year reading and writing essays.

German students attended Oktoberfest celebrations in Fort Worth and entered competitions at Novemberfest and at the Tags convention in April.

Spanish students not only learned the language, but also the customs of the people. Students made pinatas, Christmas ornaments, and God's eyes or Ojos de Dios.

In addition to learning the French language and culture, students attended a French Fortnight at Neiman-Marcus on October 20. In the spring, students learned about French cooking.

All faculty luncheon honors retiring Spann

After teaching English for 31 years, Mrs. Marjorie Spann retired in the spring to fulfill other areas of her life. Mrs. Spann has taught in Alabama, Tennessee, California, and for 18 years in Arlington. She taught Junior Honors English in Irving and then she came to Arlington and was the department head here for nine years.

Mrs. Spann was a dedicated and involved teacher. Evidence of this came in 1974 when she was named Teacher of the Year at Sam and for the Arlington Secondary Schools.

Last year, she was honored by the annual staff, along with her fellow English teacher Mrs. Yvonne Davis with a double dedication. She has been very involved with Sam's senior classes as a sponsor.

Future plans for Mrs. Spann are possibly joining the Peace Corps or living in Europe for a year to see as much of the continent without the hustle and bustle of guided tours.

To honor Mrs. Spann, the faculty held a luncheon for her in the library on May 19 followed by an open house during fifth and sixth periods.

Social studies inspire self, world awareness

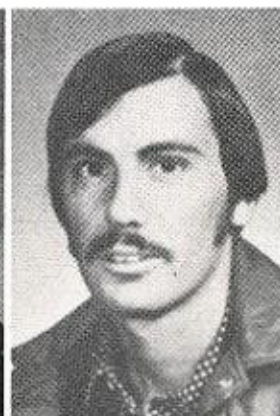

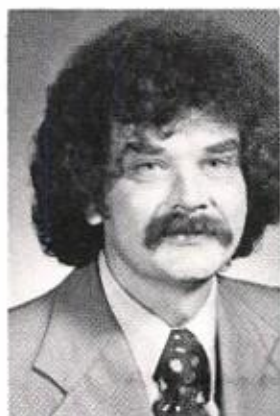

Students were required to have a full year of world history and American history and two quarters of civics in high school. Other related courses were offered to students who wanted to take more social studies.

Research papers, current events, maps, and oral reports were among assignments given to students. Faculty members tried to express the importance of history, geography, and government through world history, world geography, American history, and civics.

Students enjoyed learning about their heritage through American culture. They also learned about man's behavior through psychology and sociology.

Civics teacher Mrs. Betty MacCammond was honored by the faculty as Sam Houston teacher of the year. A member of the faculty for six years, she has taught speech as well as social studies. Other teaching assignments were at Carter and Bailey Junior Highs.

Self-expression begins with fine arts classes

Concerts, tournaments, exhibits, and deadlines kept the Fine Arts Department busy. Students and faculty members devoted many extra hours to the program.

From UIL contests to art exhibits, the department took many top honors in competitions, thanks to the leadership of dedicated faculty members.

Fine Arts showed students their abilities in music, drama, art, journalism, and photography. Many students went on to choose these fields as careers.

Students investigate many areas of science

Students with a wide variety of interests found courses they could enjoy in the Science Department.

Most sophomores took Biology I. Students learned about all types of life from single celled plants to man. Students learned to use microscopes and dissected a worm and a frog.

Those who especially enjoyed life science chose to take Biology II. Those with squeamish stomachs might not have enjoyed the dissecting of several animals including a pig.

Chemistry I students learned about valence numbers and Plank's constant. Students also learned a mole was not just a small furry animal or a skin blemish.

Enough students were really interested in chemistry to make up a second year course. Students studied the action of chemicals on a more intense level.

Geology classes studied the earth's crust. Students enjoyed spring field trips including a fossil hunting trip.

Physics was another popular course. Students did a lot of lab work and math problems. The high point of the course for many students was the study of light.

Basic, complex levels available in math field

B

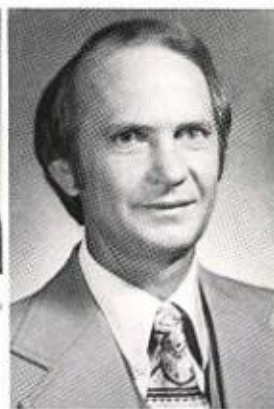

Courses offered by the Math Department were designed to give students a better understanding of math on both the basic and complex levels. Mr. George Hiatt was the head of the department.

A wide range of courses were offered. FOM was offered for those with a poor understanding of math. Calculus was offered for experts only. Most students took algebra or geometry courses.

Other courses offered included man made world, MOCE, and computer math. Trigonometry and elementary analysis were offered together to make up a full year course.

This year students went to the North Texas State University campus to attend the Seventh Annual Mathematics Day. Thirty-three students represented Sam Houston at the affair held on November 15. Mrs. Bettie Noland and Mrs. Helen Drake were the sponsors.

Resource classes give extra special incentive

Special education courses were offered for those students who had learning disabilities.

One section of the program was the resource room. Courses offered include English, math, and social studies.

VAC was another part of the program. This was a vocational course. Students were helped to find jobs to which they were best suited.

The final section of the program was devoted to deaf students. In this program two periods were used for a course structured around language. Third and fourth periods deaf students took regular class with the help of an interpreter.

Home, family stressed in homemaking classes

The Homemaking Department provided courses that helped students understand what was involved in having a family and a household of their own.

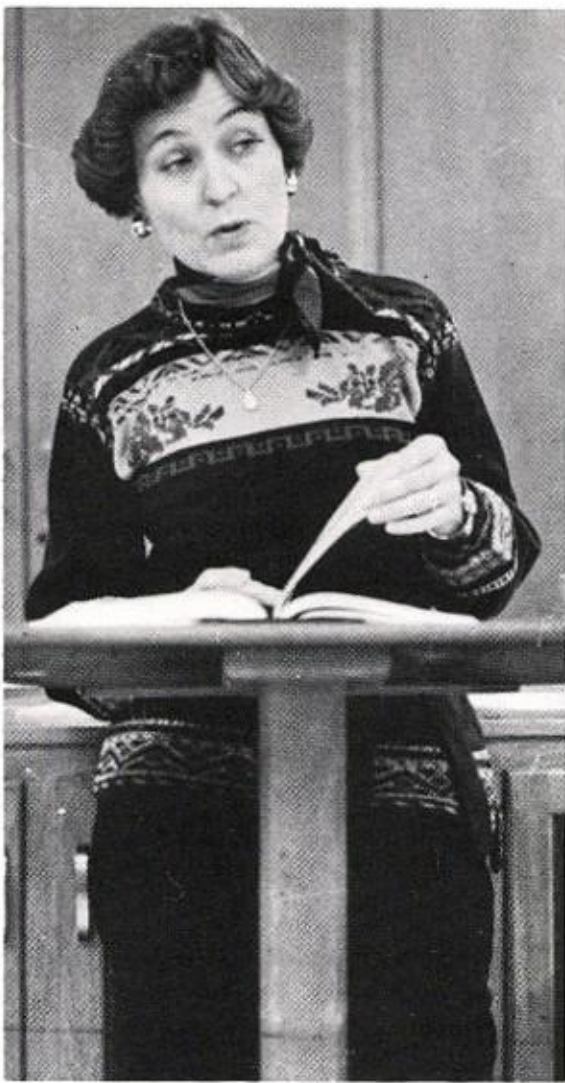

Family living was a discussion course. Students learned about themselves, dating, and marriage.

In home furnishings, students learned about housing. Designing and decorating were discussed.

Two years of general homemaking courses were offered. These classes included cooking and sewing.

Home management classes were offered to teach students how to run a household and included a study of food.

Child development was a popular course. Students studied the development of children to age five.

Business courses give students a head start

Business courses were offered to give students a head start in the working world. Students learned skills that would prove valuable to them in the future.

Two years of typing courses were offered. This year all the typewriters used in class were electric.

Two new courses were offered. Salesmanship and business law were very successful for their first year.

Shorthand was offered for those who had secretarial interests or for those who just wished to learn the skill. Clerical practice was another course that was designed to help students with office skills.

Record keeping and bookkeeping classes were offered to teach students how to keep track of money in business and in the home.

Shop classes further hobby, career fields

Many students found shop classes both interesting and fun. Students with just a slight interest, along with those who had career interests in related fields, found the courses to be very rewarding.

Metal and wood shops were offered in several forms. Both courses were available in levels I and II. General metal and wood shops were also offered.

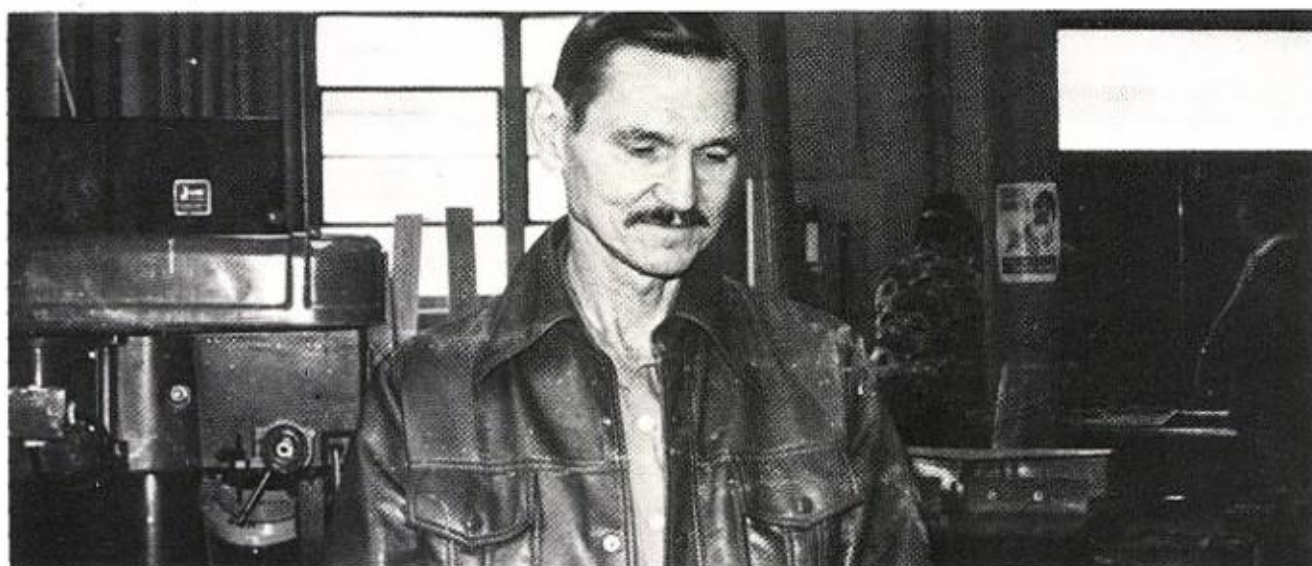

Another shop course was power mechanics. In this class students studied small motors and how they work. Students took apart a lawn mower and rebuilt it.

Architecture and drafting courses were also offered. Students learned to plan and design structures.

Opportunities numerous through co-op classes

For the student who wanted the "best of both worlds," co-op programs offered him school and a job.

Going to school for half a day, students worked at related jobs the other half.

With nearly 200 involved in co-op programs, teachers worked with students in distributive education to learn retail sales. Office education classes improved secretarial knowledge. Home-making related jobs came through HECE, and training for non technical employment was taught through ICT and CVAE.

Students were required to have five quarters of physical education and two quarters of health to complete high school. Also to be eligible for a driver's license at the age of 16, students took driver's education for one quarter.

With the school year came the beginning of coed gym classes. Boys and girls were taught many of the same sports although they could not participate together in contact sports.

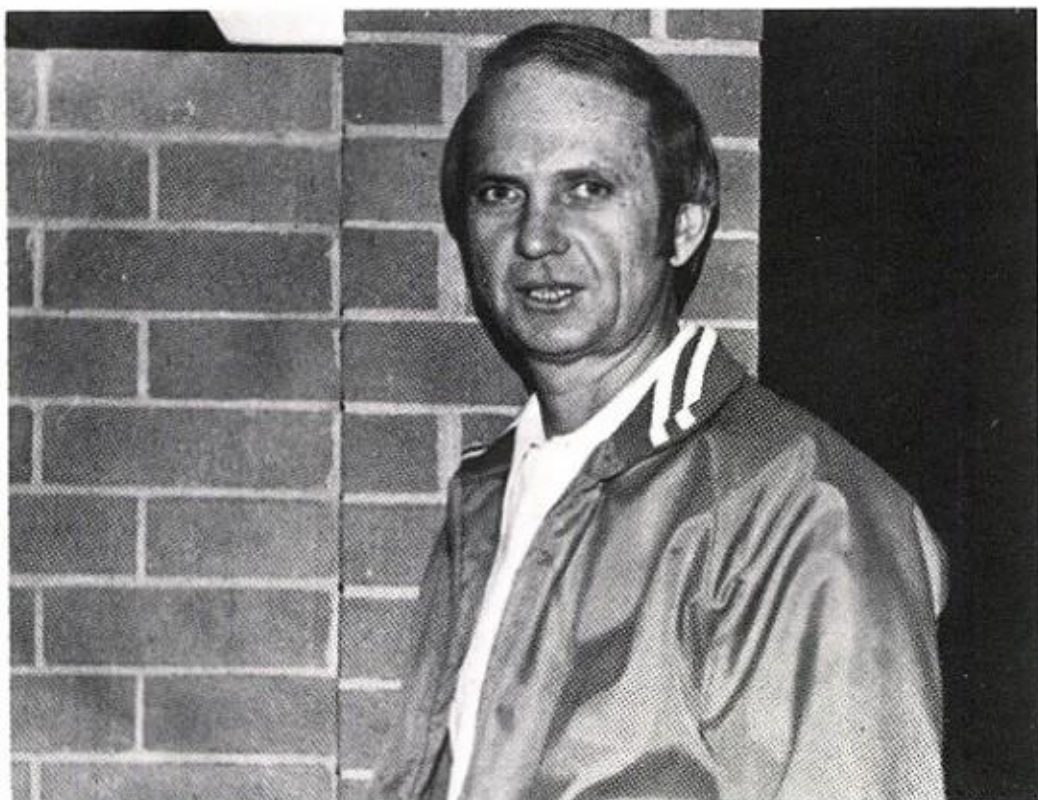

Women PE coaches taught the boys how to play volleyball, while men coaches taught girls how to play touch football. Tennis, softball, ping-pong, and badminton were among the coed sports.

Health taught students about the human body. Driver's education made students aware of driving safety. It also taught them to be courteous drivers.

YOUR NEW SYMBOL OF STRENGTH IN ARLINGTON.

We have a new name. And a new symbol.

It tells you we're part of a major banking force with total assets of 5.6 billion dollars, and a combined lending limit of more than 40 million dollars.

And that means we're in a position to handle any banking need you may have. Large, small or in between.

Whatever you need in a bank, you've got it right here in Arlington. At the bank with a new symbol of strength out front.

Hillcrest Church of Christ and many thankful people are celebrating this year the completion of a new translation of the New Testament for deaf people. Known as the English Version for the Deaf or EVD, it is a translation from the original Greek language using the vocabulary and thought patterns of the deaf. It was made by World Bible Translation Center, a work sponsored by Hillcrest Church of Christ.

(A) "Once to Every Man and Nation" is sung by the A Capella Choir during May 30 ceremonies. (B) Jon Evans tries his gown on for size. (C) A graduating senior concentrates on what the future holds for him. (D) Buzz Andrews grins happily as he receives his diploma from Mr. B. H. Remyse. (E) Mr. Monroe Bicknell stands during the alma mater.

With thoughts of the senior song "Come Sail Away," 600 seniors graduated on May 30 at Texas Hall.

Baccalaureate service had been held two days earlier at 4 p.m. Rev. Benny Slack, from Mayfield Road Baptist Church, was a special speaker at the service.

Senior Class officers gave the invocation, the welcoming of guests, introduction of Rev. Slack, and the scripture reading at Baccalaureate. Student Congress officers presided at the actual graduation.

Lori Guthrie, valedictorian, gave a speech entitled "A New Tomorrow" during the graduation ceremony. Vickie Owen, salutatorian, spoke on "What is success?"

Mr. James Covert, superintendent of schools, attended the ceremony, representing the administration.

For the second year, seniors were issued five tickets for family and friends. Additional tickets were issued from those turned back in.

(A) Billye Choate thinks about her memories as a Big Sam student. (B) Monique Boyette gives the invocation. (C) Mr. B. H. Remyse gives final advice to the Senior Class of '78. (D) Kim Davis bows her head during the benediction. (E) Seniors wait their turn to receive diplomas.

We say goodbye to Sam

Houston High School . . .

This year had many activities and events which expressed a type of spirit. There were deaths of many important and idolized people.

Elvis Presley's death was a hard blow to us all. The death of Bing Crosby crushed the nation. Charlie Chaplin, Groucho Marx and Hubert Humphrey also died during the year. The accidental death of Terry Kath of the group Chicago surprised everyone.

Sports were also an important part of our spirit. The famous College "bowl games" were an upset to everyone. The Cowboys won the Super Bowl at New Orleans against the Denver Broncos. In February 1978, Mohammed Ali lost a fight to Leon Spinks.

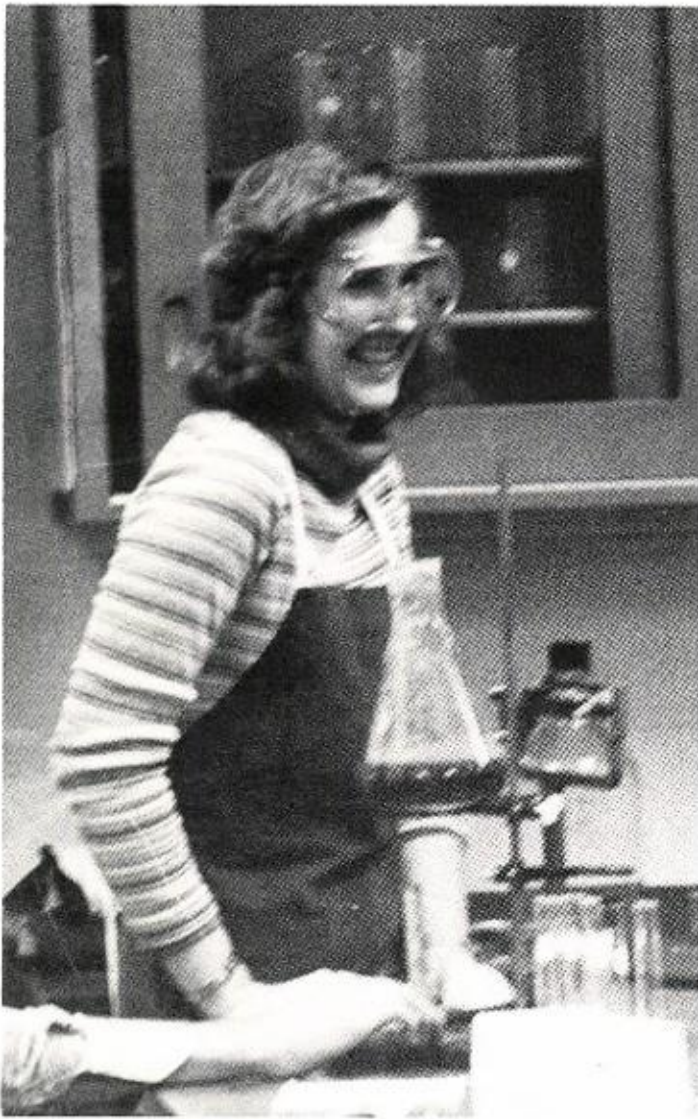

The movie trend was very popular. "Star Wars" was the first of a long line of movies that "packed" the theaters. "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" was another science fiction that became popular.

The love stories were favorites as usual. All of the girls were excited when the "Other Side of the Mountain - Part 2" came out. The "Goodbye Girl" was another good one. "Saturday Night Fever" with John Travolta was a big hit.

Television was another way of students expressing themselves. All the boys were upset when Farrah-Fawcett quit Charlie's Angels.

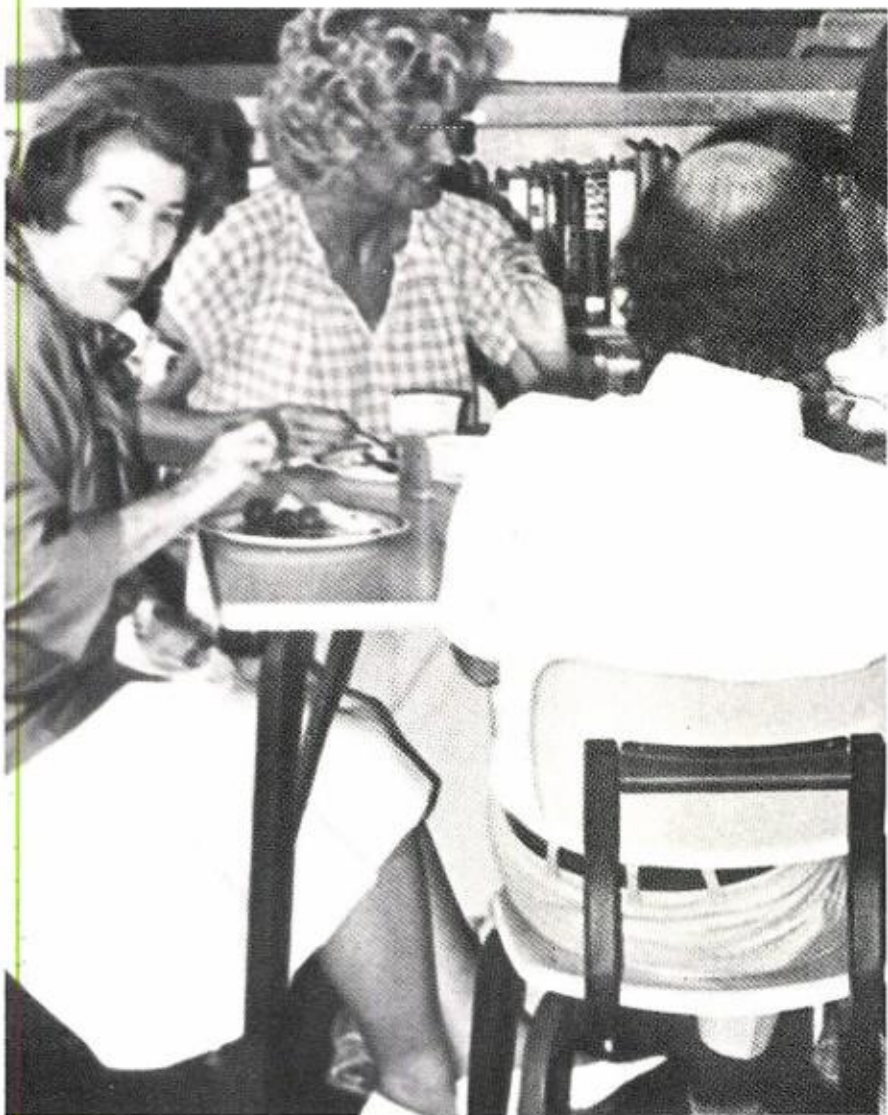

Students felt that Steve Martin and Saturday Night Live expressed their humor best.

School itself held many expressions for most of us. Things as simple as waiting between classes had special moments.

Even the classes themselves had their fun moments, though none of us was willing to admit it at the time.

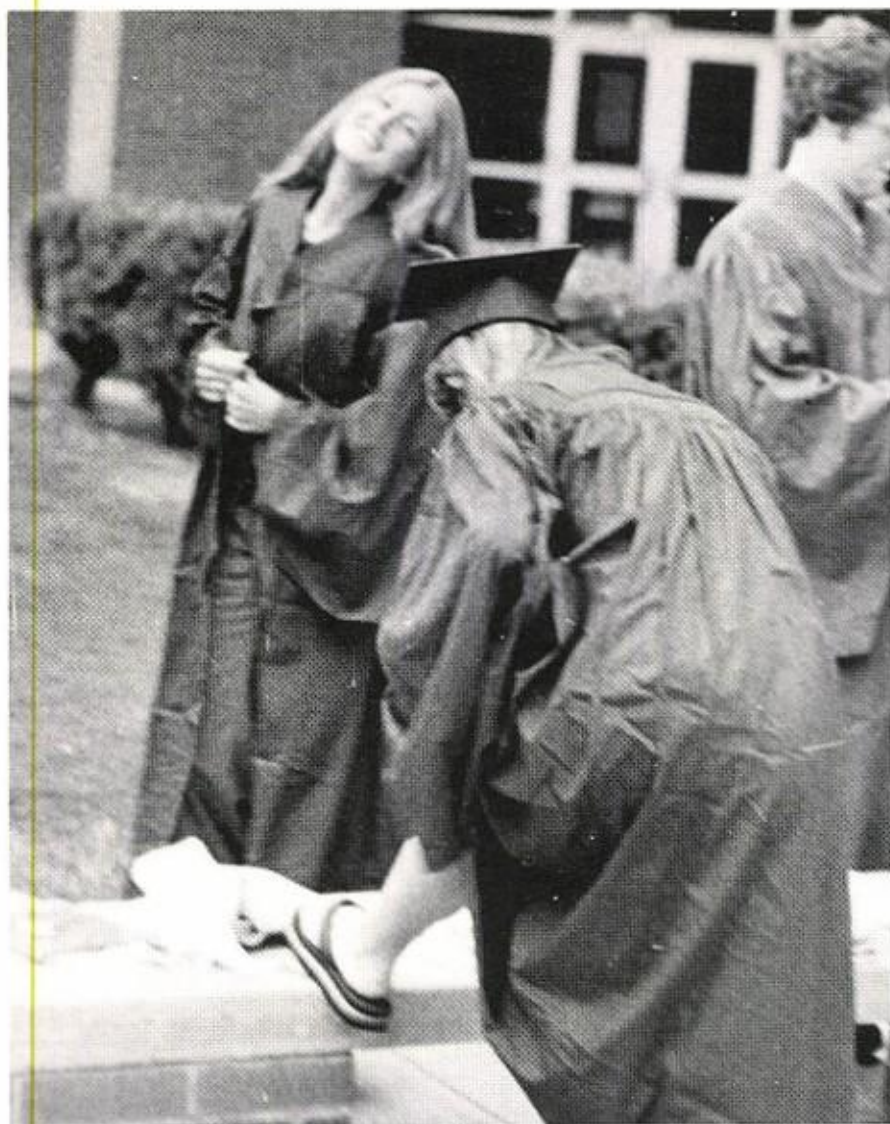

The traffic jams gave everyone a chance to express himself. The jams took place in the halls as well as in the parking lot.

Another snowy winter kept activities exciting at school. School activities were never dull, and usually surprising.

The spirit of the students never ended. Everything from lunch in the cafeteria to graduation had special moments for everyone.

As the year ended we begin to realize that our dreams and ideals would soon become realities. Seniors knew that their high school "careers" had ended and a new one had only begun.

The expressions were as diverse as the happenings, yet they "told it like it was" for everyone.
